STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

MIKE STROUHAL

STRENGTH & CONDITIONING COACH
ELEVENTH SEASON
UNIV. OF SAINT MARY, '03

A native of Kansas City, Kan., Strouhal is a 2003 graduate of the University of Saint Mary in Leavenworth, Kan., with a bachelor's in sports management and coaching. While at Saint Mary, he started four years in baseball, three years in football and began his coaching career as a strength and conditioning coach.

Strouhal is certified through the NSCA and USAW. He has overseen the development of gymnastics, baseball, freshman football, men's track sprinters and jumpers, softball and men's tennis. He has assisted with football, men's and women's basketball, soccer and volleyball, and directed an internship program.

Strouhal is married to the former Allison May and they reside in Fayetteville.

- » THE RAZORBACK BASEBALL TEAM WORKS OUT IN THE WALKER FAMILY TRAINING CENTER, WHICH IS A 38,000-SQUARE FOOT FACILITY.
- » THE WEIGHT ROOM IS ONE OF THE LARGEST IN THE COUNTRY AND HAS BEEN STUDIED AND COPIED BY OTHER UNIVERSITIES.
- » THE WEIGHT ROOM IS BROKEN UP INTO A 19,000-SQUARE FOOT WEIGHT ROOM AND A 19,000-SQUARE FOOT CONDITIONING AREA.
- » THE BASEBALL TEAM ALSO TRAINS IN THE SOUTH CAMPUS WEIGHT ROOM LOCATED IN THE TYSON INDOOR TRACK. THE 6,800-SQUARE FOOT WEIGHT ROOM WILL BE RENOVATED UPON COMPLETION TO THE INDOOR TRAINING FACILITY AS A PART OF THE #NEVERFIELD FACILITY CAMPAIGN.

SPORTS MEDICINE

COREY
WOOD

ASST. ATHLETIC TRAINER
THIRD SEASON
EAST CAROLINA, '08

Corey Wood joined the University of Arkansas as part of the athletic training staff in June 2011. Wood spent the previous two years working with Wichita State as a graduate assistant trainer. While working with WSU's baseball team, he was responsible for the Shockers' day-to-day injury prevention and rehabilitation. Wood also served as the host athletic trainer for the 2011 Missouri Valley Conference baseball tournament and was an intern for the WSU strength and conditioning staff for a year.

Prior to WSU, Wood worked as an intern with the Cleveland Indians through their spring training in 2009. He directed the aquatic therapy sessions as well as oversaw the strength activities of the team.

Wood earned his bachelor's degree from East Carolina University in May of 2008 and his master's degree in May of 2011 from Wichita State.

RAZORBACKS WITH TEAM USA

HEAD COACH DAVE VAN HORN WILL MANAGE TEAM USA IN THE SUMMER OF 2014 AFTER SERVING AS AN ASSISTANT COACH FOR THE 2011 TEAM. ELEVEN MEMBERS OF THE ARKANSAS BASEBALL PROGRAM HAVE PLAYED ON THE USA BASEBALL COLLEGIATE NATIONAL TEAM. PITCHER RYNE STANEK PLAYED FOR THE TEAM IN 2012, WHILE DJ BAXENDALE, DOMINIC FICOCIELLO, MATT REYNOLDS AND STANEK WERE ON THE TEAM IN 2011.

TRAVEL & TRANSPORTATION

THE RAZORBACKS USE A VARIETY OF TRAVEL MODES DURING THE SEASON FROM CHARTER AIRCRAFT TO COMMERCIAL AIRLINES TO CHARTER BUSES.

RAZORBACKS IN THE COMMUNITY

THE BASEBALL TEAM IS INVOLVED IN MANY COMMUNITY SERVICE EFFORTS THROUGHOUT THE YEAR, INCLUDING READING AT LOCAL ELEMENTARY SCHOOLS, ENCOURAGING FITNESS AT THE GRASS ROOTS LEVEL AND RAISING MONEY FOR UNDERPRIVILEGED CHILDREN DURING THE HOLIDAY SEASON.

MEDIA ATTENTION

THE RAZORBACKS RECEIVE COVERAGE FROM LOCAL, REGIONAL AND NATIONAL MEDIA OUTLETS THROUGHOUT THE SEASON. IN 2013, ARKANSAS APPEARED ON TELEVISION 30 TIMES, INCLUDING 16 GAMES ON THE ESPN FAMILY OF NETWORKS AND ESPN3.

Arkansas Athletic Communications

The University of Arkansas athletic communications office is located on the north side of Barnhill Arena with office hours from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday through Friday. You can often reach us at Barnhill after hours, but if not, please leave a message on our voice mail system.

Interview Policy

Please direct all requests for interviews with coaches and players to Derek Satterfield. For home SEC weekends, Coach Dave Van Horn will hold his weekly press conference on Thursday with players and assistant coaches available following Thursday's practice. On road SEC weekends, Coach Van Horn will hold his weekly press conference on Wednesday with players and assistant coaches available following Wednesday's practice. Players are not available for interviews on gamedays, except for post-game interviews. Post-game press conferences are held in the indoor batting cages located down the third base line. Coach Van Horn will address the media first, followed by the two or three most requested Razorback players. In the event of a double header, the only Arkansas player available between games for interviews is the starting pitcher of game one. The Arkansas clubhouse is off limits to the media at all times.

Credentials

Members of the media should contact Derek Satterfield to request individual game credentials for Razorback baseball home games. Credential requests should be made no later than noon (CT) the day before the scheduled contest and should be directed to the communications office at 479-575-2751 or sent by e-mail to Derek Satterfield. Credential requests for away games should be made to the media relations contact of the home team.

E-mail Updates

Members of the media may request to be added to the Arkansas communications baseball e-mail group. Subscribers will receive game notes, game stories and other information. To subscribe, send a request to Derek Satterfield. Please identify yourself and your organization in your request as this service is only available to members of the media.

Gameday Media Services

The Arkansas communications staff provides scorecards, rosters, updated statistics and results for each team in the Baum Stadium press box prior to each home game. Box scores, play-by-play and any postgame notes are disseminated approximately 10 minutes after the conclusion of the game. An Associated Press-style game story is also produced by the communications office. Members of the media may request these stories be sent to their organization via e-mail by contacting a member of the communications office.

Wireless Internet

The Baum Stadium press box is equipped with wireless internet for use by the media. Media members should log on to the "UA Wireless" network, open their internet browser and enter their email address to gain access to the network.

Live Radio/TV

The University of Arkansas Athletics Department retains all copyrights to its home events. All visiting radio stations must contact Director of Broadcasting Chuck Barrett 48 hours prior to make arrangements. Non-conference opponents may be subject to line charges as well as rights fees. Other stations requesting a phone line should contact SBC directly. Requests for live or tape-delayed television rights should be made in advance, and in writing, to Director of Marketing Michael Harris (harrisrmr@uark.edu).

IP-Based Streaming

The Arkansas Athletics Department retains all streaming rights for its home events. Shared streams may be provided to opponents on a reciprocating basis. Please contact Director of RazorVision Michelle Glover (mgllover@uark.edu) for any requests for IP-based data, audio or video streaming.

Facilities/Parking

The Arkansas baseball team conducts all practices and all games at Baum Stadium at George Cole Field. Baum Stadium is located just off Razorback Road south of Martin Luther King, Jr., Boulevard. There is space for media parking on game day. Only cars with a parking credential will be allowed access to the parking lot.

Photographers

No cameras are allowed on the Baum Stadium playing surface during games. Photographers are encouraged to use the photo wells at the end of each dugout and behind home plate.

2014 Baseball Media Guide

The 2014 edition of the Arkansas baseball media guide was written, typeset and edited by Assistant Communications Directors Chad Crunk and Derek Satterfield. RAZORBACK SPORTS NETWORK

For the 23rd consecutive season, every pitch of the Arkansas baseball season can be heard on the Razorback Sports Network from IMG College. The network spans the state of Arkansas and can also be heard in neighboring states as well as across the globe via the internet.

The Razorback Baseball Radio Network is one of the largest collegiate baseball radio networks in the nation. With more than 20 affiliates, Razorback baseball games are never more than a dial away no matter where an Arkansas fan resides.

Chuck Barrett returns to the booth for his 23rd season as the network's play-by-play announcer. Barrett has called nearly every pitch since the network's inception in 1992 and his voice has become synonymous with Arkansas baseball. Barrett is joined in the booth by former Arkansas Sports Information Director Rick Schaeffer who returned to Razorback baseball broadcasts in 2001 after a five-year absence. Schaeffer handles color analyst duties for most games but has filled in for the occasional play-by-play spot when Barrett has been unavailable.

Chuck Barrett is in his seventh year as a full-time member of the Arkansas athletic department, but his affiliation with the university goes back to 1992.

Barrett handles radio play-by-play duties for football, men's basketball and baseball. He is also the host of On the Air with Bret Bielema, Mike'd Up with Mike Anderson, a speaker at Razorback Club meetings and handles all voice-over work for the athletic department, in addition to other duties.

Barrett, who has been named Arkansas Sportscaster of the Year three times (2007, 2008 and 2010), originally hails from Clarksville, Ark., and has been a part of the Arkansas Razorback Sports Network football radio broadcasts for 20 years in a variety of roles. He became the play-by-play voice of the Arkansas men's basketball team at the start of the 2010-11 season, replacing Mike Nail who held the position for 29 years. He has handled Razorback baseball radio play-by-play for the past 22 seasons.

Prior to joining the Arkansas staff, he was a radio talk show host for Citadel Broadcasting for 15 years.

Barrett is a board member of the Brandon Burlsworth Foundation.

12TH SEASON
ARKANSAS, 1988

Now entering his 12th season at the helm of the Arkansas baseball program, head coach Dave Van Horn has elevated the Razorbacks to one of the nation's premier teams year in and year out. Over his first 11 seasons, Van Horn has led Arkansas to three College World Series appearances, 11 NCAA Tournament berths, one Southeastern Conference overall title, three SEC Western Division championships and a total of 444 wins, averaging more than 40 wins a season.

In 2013, Van Horn led the Razorbacks to their 12th consecutive NCAA Tournament, making the program one of seven teams in the country to advance to the NCAA Tournament each of the last 12 seasons. Arkansas finished the season with a 39-22 record and an 18-11 mark in SEC play. The Razorbacks' 18 wins in league play were the most since 2010, and Arkansas won seven of 10 conference series for the first time since the 2004 season. The Razorbacks reached the regional final of the NCAA Manhattan Regional. After dropping the opening game of the regional to Bryant, Arkansas bounced back with victories over Wichita State and Bryant before falling to host school Kansas State in the regional championship.

Following the season, Arkansas set a school record with 11 players taken in the 2013 Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft. The 11 players drafted also was the most in the country. In a testament to the development of players once they arrive at Arkansas, 10 of the 11 draftees improved their draft position by coming to school. Since 2009, 33 of the 34 Arkansas players that have been drafted have improved their draft stock by becoming a Razorback.

For the second consecutive season, Van Horn reached a milestone as he earned his 1,000th career victory as a head coach during the 2013 season. His 1,000th win came in the third game of the series against San Diego State. In his 25 years of coaching, Van Horn has amassed a 1,029-485 (.680) record and is 444-245 (.644) at Arkansas. Entering the 2014 season, Van Horn ranks 17th among active coaches in winning percentage and 27th among active coaches in career victories.

It was announced during the 2013 season that Van Horn would serve as the head coach for the USA Baseball Collegiate National Team in the summer of 2014. Van Horn will lead the best collegiate players in the country against some of the top teams in the world, including the collegiate national teams from Cuba and Japan. Van Horn will be donning the Stars and Stripes for the second time in his coaching career as he served as an assistant coach on the Collegiate National Team in the summer of 2011, helping the team to an 11-2-1 record, which included winning three games against the Japanese Collegiate All-Stars.

For the third time in his Arkansas tenure, Van Horn guided the Razorbacks to Omaha, Neb., and the College World Series in 2012. Arkansas used a dominant pitching staff, timely hitting and strong defense to win the Houston Regional and Waco Super Regional to advance to the seventh College World Series in program history. The Razorbacks won their first two games of the College World Series and finished in a tie for third, equaling the second-best finish to a season in school history. Arkansas finished the season with a 46-22 record, the most wins for UA under Van Horn and the sixth-highest single-season win total in school history. The Razorbacks also won 40 games for the fourth straight season and for the 18th time in program history. Arkansas finished the season ranked in the top six in all four of the major college baseball polls, including a No. 3 national ranking in the USA Today/ESPN Coaches Poll, the NCBWA poll and the Collegiate Baseball poll.

Arkansas had a knack for winning the close games in 2012. The Razorbacks played 32 games decided by one or two runs and went 19-13 in those games. Arkansas was 14-9 in one-run games during the 2012 season and had a streak of seven straight one-run victories late in the season. Six of the Razorbacks' seven wins in the NCAA Tournament were by one run, including a pair of 1-0 victories.

Van Horn reached a milestone as the Razorback head coach in 2012 as he earned his 400th win at Arkansas during UA's NCAA Tournament run. Van Horn's 400th win was a significant one as it came against Rice in the Houston Regional. The 1-0 victory over the eighth-ranked Owls put the Razorbacks in the driver's seat of the regional, which they would eventually win with a 5-1 win over Sam Houston State.

In what many people saw as a rebuilding season in 2011, Van Horn guided the Razorbacks to the program's fourth SEC Western Division championship and to the NCAA Tournament. After posting a 38-20 overall record through the SEC Tournament, the Razorbacks were sent to the NCAA Tempe Regional hosted by Arizona State. After dropping its opening game of the regional, Arkansas rallied to reach the regional championship game before eventually falling to the Sun Devils. Arkansas finished the season with a 40-22 record and closed the season ranked in the top 25 of every major poll with an RPI of 14.

Van Horn led Arkansas to the NCAA Tournament for the ninth consecutive year in 2010. The Razorbacks also reached the Super Regional round in back-to-back years for the first time in program history. On the strength of a 40-18 record after the SEC Tournament, the Razorbacks were selected to host an NCAA Regional for the fifth time in school history. Arkansas advanced to the Super Regionals with a 7-2 victory over Washington State in a winner-take-all regional championship game. In the Super Regionals, the Razorbacks went toe-to-toe with the tournament's top seed, Arizona State, on its home field. Arkansas lost a pair of 12-inning heartbreakers to finish the season with a 43-21 record.

Van Horn achieved three coaching milestones during the 2010 regular season. The Razorback skipper picked up his 300th win at Arkansas on April 9 in an 8-3 win over Mississippi State. On February 27 in a 10-8 win over Troy, Van Horn earned his 600th win as a Division I head coach. He recorded career win No. 900 on May 21 in a 4-3 victory at Vanderbilt.

Arkansas also set a new school record for attendance in 2010 as 292,734 fans saw a game at Baum Stadium, besting the previous record of 266,270 set during the 2007 season. The Razorbacks finished second in the country in both total attendance and average attendance (7,704 average).

For the second time in his Razorback coaching career, Van Horn and his team made the ultimate postseason push and collected the program's sixth trip to Omaha for the 2009 College World Series. Rebounding from a late-season slump, Arkansas advanced to the semifinals of the SEC Baseball Tournament before earning its eighth consecutive berth into an NCAA Regional. Supported by their fans, the Razorbacks hit the road and swept their way through the Norman Regional and Tallahassee Super Regional, besting Washington State and national seeds Oklahoma and Florida State along the way. In Omaha, Arkansas won two games and tied for a third-place national finish, equaling the 1985 team for the second-best finish in program history.

The 2009 regular season had its share of highlights, too. The Razorbacks jumped out to an 8-0 start in SEC play for the first time in program history. The club achieved another first when Collegiate Baseball released its April 6 poll with Arkansas ranked No. 1, the first top ranking by any publication in program history. The Razorbacks faced Arizona State in a midweek series that same week, the first No. 1 vs. No. 1 matchup at Baum Stadium. Arkansas solidified its top billing by knocking off the Sun Devils in both games.

In the finale against Arizona State, the Razorbacks had the support of a then-Baum Stadium-record 11,014 fans. That number is a significant reminder of the traditionally strong attendance figures for the Arkansas baseball team. In 2009, the Razorbacks finished No. 2 in national attendance with an average of 7,906 fans per game.

The highly decorated coach has both individual and team honors throughout his 25-year coaching resume beginning at Texarkana (Texas) Community College all the way through the present. Individually, he has been named national coach of the year twice, regional coach of the year twice and conference coach of the year four times. His teams have made five College World Series appearances, won five outright conference championships, a Division II National Championship and made 15 consecutive appearances in the NCAA Tournament. Van Horn is one of only 11 coaches in NCAA history to lead two programs to the College World Series.

Since joining the Razorbacks as head coach, Van Horn has led his teams to an SEC Championship, three SEC Western Division titles, 11 NCAA Tournament berths and three College World Series appearances. His players have earned 16 All-America honors, 19 All-SEC nods, 82 SEC Academic Honor Roll spots and 10 Capital One Academic All-District accolades. Not resting on his laurels, Van Horn has kept his competitive juices flowing as he seeks to bring a national championship to his alma mater.

Not only have his players flourished in collegiate baseball, but several have gone on to solid professional baseball careers. More than 100 former players have signed professional contracts, including former Razorback standouts Zack Cox, Brett Eibner, Logan Forsythe, Craig Gentry, Dallas Keuchel, James McCann, Drew Smyly and Jess Todd. At the end of the 2013 season, Forsythe (Padres), Gentry (Rangers), Keuchel (Astros) and Smyly (Tigers) were all playing at the big league level.

When Van Horn took over the Razorback program prior to the 2003 season, he inherited a team that lacked depth and was thought of as weak within the SEC. Changing the culture of the team immediately, Van Horn guided his inaugural squad to both the SEC and NCAA Tournaments. His team was ranked in all four major baseball polls throughout the year and picked up series wins at No. 6 South Carolina and No. 5 Auburn.

The success of the program and Van Horn's no-nonsense approach to his team has endeared him to the Razorback faithful. The Arkansas fan base has grown steadily since Van Horn was given the reins of the program and three renovations have been completed at Baum Stadium since his arrival to accommodate the growing numbers. Baum Stadium, already one of the nicest collegiate baseball parks in the nation, has grown with the addition of nearly 5,000 chair back seats, 32 luxury boxes and now has a capacity of 10,737.

One of the things that Van Horn is known for is recruiting fundamental players and molding them into the stars of tomorrow. In his first season with Arkansas, only two Razorbacks were taken in the Major League Baseball first year player draft. That number has grown significantly over the years with a school-record 11 players being drafted in the 2013 MLB Draft. Four of Arkansas' stars, Nick Schmidt (2007), Logan Forsythe (2008), Zack Cox (2010) and Ryne Stanek (2013) were selected in the first round of the draft and 24 players have been picked in the first 10 rounds since he took over, with Stanek (1st round, Tampa Bay Rays), Colby Suggs (2nd round, Miami Marlins) and Barrett Astin (3rd round, Milwaukee Brewers) all being taken in the first three rounds of the 2013 MLB Draft.

The Razorbacks have been successful in every facet of the game over the past 11 seasons. Hitting was the focal point in some seasons while pitching dominated in others, but Van Horn knows that to accomplish his ultimate goal it takes a total team effort.

In 2007, Arkansas won the Razorbacks' third SEC Western Division title when they went 18-12 in league play. The Razorbacks were 43-21 overall, hosted their fourth NCAA Regional and finished the season No. 18 in the final Collegiate Baseball rankings.

That team was one of Van Horn's best in terms of individual pitching prospects. Two-time first-team All-American Nick Schmidt was taken by the San Diego Padres in the first round of the MLB Draft (No. 23 overall). Right-handers Jess Todd and Duke Welker were each taken in the second round by St. Louis and Pittsburgh, respectively. Todd also earned second-team All-America honors.

The excitement around Baum Stadium that season also brought the Razorback nation out in record numbers. Arkansas fans set the school record for average attendance while also setting the then-NCAA mark for average attendance in a season with 8,089 tickets sold per game.

Schmidt's success on the mound was a continuation of his 2006 season when the lefty was named the SEC Pitcher of the Year by the league coaches. The Razorbacks went 39-21 that season and hosted another NCAA Regional.

A hot start to the 2005 season had the Razorbacks ranked as high as No. 5 nationally as they opened the year 20-2, but a rash of bad luck sidetracked what was shaping up to be a magical year. Despite the setbacks, the Razorbacks did come just a breath away from pulling one of the nation's biggest upsets as it won its first two games at the NCAA Austin Regional. Arkansas would go all the way to the final game of the regional before losing to eventual national champion Texas.

Arkansas' 2004 season was one for the history books as the Razorbacks won 45 games, shared the SEC regular-season title, hosted NCAA Regional and Super Regional games and made its fifth appearance at the College World Series. The following all came true despite the Razorbacks getting picked to finish last in the SEC's Western Division by the league coaches. Along the way, Arkansas won 19 SEC games, swept a weekend series in Baton Rouge, La., against No. 2 LSU and dispatched a tough Florida State team in the Super Regional in two games. The Razorback sweep of LSU was the first time since 1988 that the Tigers had been swept at home by a conference opponent. The Razorback accomplishments led to a top 10 finish in all four major collegiate baseball polls, including a No. 6 ranking by Baseball America.

Prior to taking the helm of the Arkansas program on June 21, 2002, Van Horn enjoyed a very successful five-year run as the head coach at the University of Nebraska. In a short period of time, he built a once-fledgling program into a national powerhouse. Prior to his arrival, the Cornhuskers had made just four postseason appearances in 108 years of baseball history. With their new skipper on the bench, Nebraska went to four NCAA Tournaments and two College World Series.

During his stint with Nebraska, Van Horn amassed a 214-92 (.699) record, won three consecutive Big 12 Tournament titles and earned Nebraska's first regular-season conference title in 51 years. He was twice named the American Baseball Coaches Association's Midwest Region Coach of the Year and posted back-to-back 50-win seasons in 2000 and 2001. In his second season with Nebraska, Van Horn guided his club to its first NCAA Tournament berth in 18 years after it won the Big 12 Tournament, its first title of any kind in nearly 50 years.

Similar to what he has done at Arkansas, Nebraska's players shined with Van Horn at the helm. The Cornhuskers had at least one player named a finalist for national player of the year honors in three seasons including a pair of Howser Award Finalists. Seven players were named first-team All-America and 26 earned All-Big 12 accolades including a school-record nine in 2000. The Cornhuskers also excelled in the classroom with 30 Phillips 66 Academic All-Big 12 selections (21 first-teamers) and seven players named academic all-district.

Prior to his move to Nebraska, Van Horn coached three seasons with Northwestern State in Natchitoches, La., his first foray as a head coach in Division I. He went 106-65 (.620) in those three seasons and won two Southland Conference regular-season titles (1995 and 1997). Each title also earned him Southland Conference Coach of the Year honors.

Van Horn spent one season at the Division II level, coaching Central Missouri State in 1994, and his effects there were awe-inspiring. Taking the reins of the program with just six weeks of preparation before the season, the Mules got off to a quick start by winning 12 of their first 13 games and eventually put together a 21-game winning streak. CMSU won the MIAA Conference Championship and the tournament title before eventually dominating at the NCAA Championships to win the school's first national championship. In 2000, Central Missouri honored Van Horn and his 1994 team by inducting them into the Central Missouri State Hall of Fame.

The storied career of Van Horn as a head coach began with a humble start at Texarkana (Texas) Community College in 1989. In five seasons with the Bulldogs, Van Horn guided Texarkana to a 214-72 (.748) record. He set records for single-season wins in four of his five seasons beginning with his first and guided his 1992 squad to the NJCAA Texas Eastern Conference Championships.

Prior to his first stint as a head coach, Van Horn worked with the man he replaced at Arkansas, coach Norm DeBriyn, for four seasons as a graduate assistant, assisting the Razorbacks to a pair of College World Series. Arkansas was 184-71-1 (.721) while he was a GA and made the NCAA Regional Tournament in each of his four seasons.

Van Horn's playing career was spent in the infield where he was a highly touted player. Two seasons at McLennan (Texas) Community College earned him All-America, Region 5 Player of the Year, all-conference and all-region honors. The standout defensive third baseman was drafted by the Chicago White Sox, but instead Van Horn transferred to Arkansas.

In one year with the Razorbacks, Van Horn earned All-Southwest Conference honors as well as the team's most valuable player and SWC Newcomer of the Year accolades. Following his junior year, the Atlanta Braves selected Van Horn in the 10th round of the 1982 draft. Van Horn would spend three seasons with the Braves organization before returning to Fayetteville to begin his coaching career.

Van Horn is married to the former Karen Lee. The couple has two daughters, Hollan (20) and Mariel (16).

TONY VITELLO

ASST. COACH/RECRUITING COORDINATOR

MWC CONFERENCE TITLES

NCAA TOURNAMENT APPEARANCES

1ST SEASON
MISSOURI, 2002

Tony Vitello, considered one of the top recruiters in the country, is in his first year as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator for the University of Arkansas baseball team.

Vitello came to Arkansas after spending three seasons as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at TCU. Prior to TCU, Vitello was an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Missouri for eight years.

In his three years at TCU, Vitello brought in some of the top players in the country and helped the Horned Frogs to two NCAA Tournament appearances, including a super regional berth in 2012. The Horned Frogs started seven freshmen recruited by Vitello in the super regional at UCLA. His final recruiting class at TCU was ranked 17th in the country, and three student-athletes he signed also played for Team USA.

In 2013, 11 newcomers from an 11th-ranked recruiting class saw time on the field for TCU. A pair of Horned Frog freshmen earned freshman All-America honors as Boomer White hit .314 with 27 RBI, while Alex Young was 7-4 with five saves in 22 appearances, 20 in relief. Despite featuring four new faces, TCU's pitching staff ranked in the top 20 in most pitching categories during the 2013 season.

Vitello's 2012 recruiting class was ranked in the top 10 nationally by Baseball America, and the group paid immediate dividends for the Horned Frogs as 16 players made their debut during the 2012 season. Freshman Preston Morrison was named the Mountain West Conference Pitcher and Freshman of the Year and was also tabbed a third-team All-American and a freshman All-American.

Despite the team's youth, the 2012 squad had success on the field, winning the Mountain West Conference regular season and advancing to the super regionals before falling to UCLA. Four Horned Frog hitters earned all-conference accolades and six TCU players were selected in the MLB Draft.

In his first season at TCU in 2011, Vitello worked with a TCU offense that finished the season with a .306 batting average and averaged 6.7 runs per game. The team hit 141 doubles on the season, which ranked fourth all-time in school history. The Horned Frogs finished the season with 43 victories and advanced to the NCAA Regional. Five offensive players earned all-conference honors and four offensive players were selected in the 2011 MLB Draft.

In his eight seasons at Missouri, the Tigers made the postseason seven times. Vitello served as the pitching coach at Missouri, while also working with the team's hitters and serving as the first base coach. Vitello's 2008 recruiting class at Missouri was ranked No. 11 nationally by Baseball America, and he had top 25 recruiting classes in three of his final four years at Missouri.

Under Vitello the Tigers' ERA was consistently among the best in the Big 12 Conference, highlighted by a 3.17 mark in 2005 and a 3.36 ERA in 2006. The 2006 ERA led the Big 12 and was 11th best nationally.

In 2009, Kyle Gibson led the Big 12 with 131 strikeouts and was second in the league with 11 wins on the season. The 131 strikeouts tied the school record and the 11 wins was second most in Missouri baseball history. Gibson was selected by Minnesota in the first round of the 2009 MLB Draft, joining Aaron Crow as a first-round selection the year before. Gibson finished his career at MU with 28 wins and 304 strikeouts, which both ranked second all-time at Missouri.

Crow, who was first taken ninth in the 2008 MLB Draft, was selected with the 12th overall pick by Kansas City in 2009. In 2008, Crow became the second MU pitcher in four years to be named the Big 12 Pitcher of the Year. Crow, a first-team All-American, was also the recipient of the Clemens Award, which is given to the nation's top collegiate pitcher. He finished 2008 with a 13-0 record, setting a new school record for wins in a season, and had an ERA of 2.85.

During the 2008 season, Crow had a stretch of 43.0 scoreless innings pitched from Feb. 29-April 11 that was the fourth longest streak in NCAA history. Another member of the Tigers' staff, Ian Berger, put together a string of 36.1 scoreless innings pitched from March 9-29. Crow and Gibson each earned All-Big 12 recognition in 2008 and Gibson was a first-team All-Big 12 selection in 2009.

In 2007, the MU pitching staff ranked fourth in the Big 12 with an ERA of 4.25. That staff included an All-Big 12 first-team selection in Crow and a second-team honoree, Rick Zagone. Zagone earned Big 12 and National Pitcher of the Week honors after throwing a near no-hitter against Kansas State.

In 2006, the MU pitching staff recorded seven shutouts and held opponents to two or fewer runs in 19 of the 63 games. In the NCAA Regional, a pair of freshmen, Zagone and Crow, recorded back-to-back complete game victories, each allowing just one run on six hits, as Mizzou went on to claim the Malibu Regional Championship.

Vitello helped mold Max Scherzer into the 11th overall draft pick in the 2006 MLB Draft. Scherzer, the 2005 Big 12 Pitcher of the Year and one of the nation's top pitchers in 2005 and 2006, improved from an ERA of 5.85 as a freshman in 2004 to a dominant 1.86 in his sophomore season when he led the Big 12 in ERA, strikeouts (131) and opponents' batting average (.163). As a junior, Scherzer had a 2.25 ERA despite fighting injuries much of the season.

During the 2005 season, the Tigers had a stretch of 26 innings without allowing a run from March 14-19 after putting together a 23-scoreless-inning stretch earlier that season. One of the most impressive pitching outings in recent history came against Texas Tech in April of 2005 when Missouri recorded the school's first no-hitter since 1981. In 2006, five Missouri pitchers were taken in the draft with two drafted in the first four rounds.

VITELLO PERSONAL FILE

Date of Birth:	July 23, 1966
Alma Mater:	Missouri • 2002
Assistant Coaching Experience:	Arkansas • June 2013-present TCU • 2011-13 Missouri • 2003-2010 Salina Packers • 2002 Missouri • 2000-02
Playing Experience:

As recruiting coordinator, Vitello was instrumental in bringing some of the nation's top prospects to Missouri. The 2008 class was ranked among Collegiate Baseball's Top-20 recruiting classes and Baseball America voted the class the 11th best nationally.

Following his playing career and the completion of his management degree at MU, Vitello joined the Missouri coaching staff as a volunteer assistant in 2003. He also completed his course work for his master's degree in business. The following season he was elevated to full-time assistant coach.

During his time as a Tiger assistant coach, Vitello recruited and developed 19 players who were drafted by major league teams, including major leaguers Ian Kinsler, Max Scherzer, Aaron Crow, Kyle Gibson, Nick Tepesch, Doug Mathis and Justin James.

Vitello also served as the associate head coach for the Salina Packers of the California Collegiate League in 2002. The Packers finished 50-14 and earned their first trip to the NBC World Series in Wichita, Kan.

A three-year letterwinner at Missouri, Vitello earned Academic All-Big 12 Conference honors as a senior and was named to the Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll twice.

SEC TITLES

SEC WEST TITLES

Beginning his 18th overall season with the Razorbacks, Dave Jorn has made a lasting and profound impression on the baseball program. In his second stint with Arkansas, Jorn is beginning his 12th season as the pitching coach with head coach Dave Van Horn.

Jorn's unmistakable impact on the Razorback baseball program can not only be seen on the pitcher's mound but in the locker room and on the draft boards of every Major League Baseball team.

During two assistant coaching stints in Fayetteville, Jorn has been a part of 712 wins, five trips to the College World Series and 16 NCAA Tournament berths. In addition, the Razorbacks have enjoyed 11 40-win seasons, two 50-win campaigns and his pitchers have tossed five no-hit games. Since 2003, 27 Arkansas pitchers have been drafted and since 2009, 15 of the 16 Razorback pitchers that have been drafted improved their draft stock by coming to school at Arkansas and learning under Jorn. Three of Jorn's former pupils at the UA saw time in Major League Baseball during the 2013 season as Dallas Keuchel (Houston Astros), Drew Smyly (Detroit Tigers) and Duke Welker (Pittsburgh Pirates) all were in the big leagues.

Since returning to Arkansas in 2003, Jorn has had seven pitching staffs finish the season with an ERA of less than 4.00, including in each of the last four seasons. Over the last three seasons, his pitching staffs have accounted for the three of the 10 lowest team ERAs in program history, including a school-record 1.89 team ERA in 2013, shattering the previous school record for lowest ERA, which was 2.74 set in 1976. The 2012 squad had a team ERA of 2.83, the third-best in school history, while the 2011 pitching staff finished the season with a 3.20 team ERA, the 10th-best in school annals.

Jorn returned to Arkansas in 2003 after a 14-year career in Major League Baseball as a coach for the New York Mets, New York Yankees and Arizona Diamondbacks. Prior to working in the pros, he spent six years with the Razorbacks under legendary Arkansas head coach Norm DeBrynn. In his second tour of duty with the Razorbacks, he has revived Arkansas' pitching fortunes once again.

Under the tutelage of Jorn, the 2013 Arkansas pitching staff ranks as the best in school history and among the best nationally in recent history. The Razorbacks finished the 2013 season with a nation's best team ERA of 1.89, becoming the first school in the country to finish with a sub-2.00 ERA since Le Moyne in 1992. Arkansas' team ERA was the lowest for any team since 1976 when Connecticut posted a 1.71 team ERA. Arkansas also led the country in hits allowed per nine innings (6.78) and was fifth nationally in walks and hits allowed per innings pitched (1.11).

The Razorback pitching staff was stout from start to finish with the highest ERA on the team being Trey Killian's 3.19. All three of Arkansas' weekend starters finished with an ERA of 2.03 or below, led by second-team All-American and first-team All-SEC selection Ryne Stanek, who posted a 10-2 record with a 1.39 ERA. Barrett Astin compiled a 4-4 record with a 1.79 ERA, while Randall Fant enjoyed a breakout senior season with a 6-1 record and a 2.03 ERA. The Razorback bullpen combined for a 1.94 ERA. Colby Suggs set a single-season school record with 13 saves and a 1.74 ERA in 23 appearances. Jalen Beeks pitched in a team-high 29 games and went 6-2 with two saves and a 2.20 ERA, while Brandon Moore was 1-4 with a 2.68 ERA in 25 appearances.

Seven members of the pitching staff were selected in the 2013 MLB Draft, part of a school-record and nation-leading 11 Arkansas players taken in the draft. Along with Stanek (1st round, Tampa Bay Rays), Suggs (2nd round, Miami Marlins), Astin (3rd round, Milwaukee Brewers), Moore (17th round, Milwaukee Brewers) and Fant (29th round, Houston Astros), Arkansas pitchers Trent Daniel (17th round, Colorado Rockies) and Tyler Wright (26th round, Seattle Mariners) were also selected in the draft. Daniel had a 2.55 ERA with a 0-1 record and one save in 22 appearances, while Wright went 1-1 in 11 appearances and only allowed four unearned runs in 20.1 innings.

In 2012, Arkansas finished the season with a team ERA of 2.83, the third-lowest single-season ERA in school history. The Razorbacks ranked second in the SEC and fifth in the country in team ERA. Jorn's pitching staff was even better in the NCAA Tournament. In 10 NCAA Tournament games, Arkansas' pitching staff had a 1.92

ERA, including a team ERA of 1.80 in four College World Series games. Arkansas ranked fourth nationally in hits allowed per nine innings, giving up just 7.53 hits per nine innings. The Razorbacks finished the season with 10 shutouts, which ranked as the second-highest single-season total in school history.

Individually, 10 members of the 2012 pitching staff finished the season with an ERA under 3.20 (minimum 10 appearances). DJ Baxendale and Stanek each earned All-SEC honors from SEBaseball.com. Stanek also earned honorable mention All-America honors from CollegeBaseballInsider.com. Baxendale finished the season with an 8-5 record and a 3.11 ERA, while Stanek was 8-4 with a 2.82 ERA. Astin and Suggs headlined a strong Arkansas bullpen. Astin finished the season with 11 saves, which ranked tied for the third-highest single-season total in school history, and a 1.99 ERA. Suggs compiled a 7-1 record with a 1.38 ERA. Three members of the Razorback pitching staff were drafted in the 2012 MLB Draft. Nolan Sanburn was selected by the Oakland Athletics in the second round, Baxendale was a 10th-round pick of the Minnesota Twins and Fant was drafted in the 29th round by the Cleveland Indians.

Jorn's pitching staff in 2011 ranked among the best in the SEC and nationally. The Razorback pitching staff finished the season with a team ERA of 3.20, ranking fourth in the conference and 27th nationally. Arkansas' team ERA was the 10th-best in program history. The Razorback pitching staff combined to allow just 7.86 hits per nine innings, which ranked them 14th in the country. The Razorback bullpen was particularly strong in 2011, setting a new single-season school record with 20 saves and posting a 20-8 record with a 2.51 ERA.

Three of Jorn's pupils earned conference and national recognition following the 2011 season. Baxendale was named second-team All-SEC and earned All-Region honors after finishing his junior season with a 10-2 record, three saves and a 1.58

ERA. Baxendale was the first Razorback pitcher to record double-digit wins in a season since Nick Schmidt in 2007 and posted the fifth-lowest ERA in program history. Astin and Sanburn each earned freshman All-America honors following the season. Astin appeared in a team-high 27 games and had a 5-2 record with three saves and 2.72 ERA. Sanburn led Arkansas with eight saves and compiled a 2-4 record with a 3.62 ERA.

In 2010, the Razorback rotation finished the year with a 3.93 ERA, finishing third in the conference and posting the first sub-4.00 ERA since the 2007 season. Arkansas pitchers also posted the second-best strikeout to walk ratio in school history at 2.92, fanning 551 batters and issuing just 189 bases on balls.

The ace of the Razorback pitching staff in 2010 was Drew Smyly. The southpaw finished the year with a 9-1 record and a 2.80 ERA. He was recognized for his stellar season by earning All-SEC honors. Smyly, who made his Major League debut in 2012 with the Detroit Tigers, was drafted in the second round of the 2010 MLB Draft by the Tigers with the 68th overall pick.

Jorn's 2007 starting rotation was possibly the best three-man rotation in college baseball and one of the best in school history. Nick Schmidt, who garnered All-America honors for the second consecutive season, anchored a rotation that included junior college transfers Jess Todd and Duke Welker. The trio combined for 27 wins, 315 innings, a .217 opponent batting average and 319 strikeouts.

Under Jorn's guidance, Schmidt finished his three-year Razorback career as one of the most-decorated players to ever don an Arkansas uniform. His 11-3 record and career-low 2.69 ERA in 2007 cumulated a career that produced a 28-8 record, 2.83 ERA and a school record 345 strikeouts. Schmidt also earned SEC Pitcher of the Year honors in 2006.

Schmidt was drafted in the first round of the 2007 Major League Baseball Draft by the San Diego Padres with the 23rd overall selection. He became the first Razorback to be drafted in the first round since 1999 and just the fourth first rounder in school history.

Jorn's trio of starting pitchers were all selected by the 82nd overall pick in the second round of the 2007 MLB Draft. Welker went with the 68th pick to the Pittsburgh Pirates while Todd was taken No. 82 by the St. Louis Cardinals. Both Schmidt and Todd were picked as first-team All-SEC selections by league coaches. Todd also earned second-team All-America honors with a 9-3 record, two saves, two complete games and 128 strikeouts, which tied for the third-most in a single season in school history. During the summer of 2009, Todd was called up by the St. Louis Cardinals to join the big-league team.

The Razorbacks' 2007 pitchers recorded a school-record 565 strikeouts in 569 innings of work for 8.9 strikeouts per nine innings that ranked fifth nationally. The staff also garnered a 2.58 strikeout-to-walk ratio and held opponents to a .249 batting average. The 2006 staff, led by Schmidt, posted a team ERA of 3.64, the lowest in 15 years.

In 2006, Schmidt finished 9-3 with 145 strikeouts and was named the league's top pitcher by the coaches. His 145 strikeouts were also the second-most in a single season in Arkansas history. Jorn also molded lefty Devin Collis into one of the league's top closers, finishing with nine saves. Shaun Seibert also came into his own under Jorn's guidance, posting a 2.79 ERA that ranked second in the SEC.

In 2005, Arkansas compiled a 4.05 ERA and rode the strong arms of Charley Boyce and freshman All-American Schmidt to 39 wins and a NCAA Regional berth. Seibert and Schmidt were both named to the Collegiate Baseball Freshman All-America team for their standout efforts.

In 2004, the Razorbacks claimed a share of the SEC overall title and advanced to the College World Series for the first time in 15 seasons. Under Jorn's guidance, Razorback hurlers posted the lowest team ERA since 1991 with a 3.87 mark. Jorn helped Boyce post a 10-3 record and a 3.20 ERA in 2004, while part-time starter Jay Sawatski also posted a 10-3 record with a 3.38 ERA. The Razorbacks' bullpen was equally effective under Jorn's instruction in 2004 as the relievers recorded a 3.72 ERA with a 25-11 record and 16 saves.

Jorn first served as Arkansas' pitching coach from 1983-88. During Jorn's time on DeBrynn's staff, Arkansas posted a record of 268-108 (.713), competed in five NCAA Regionals and earned trips to the 1985 and the 1987 College World Series. Six different Razorback pitchers earned All-Southwest Conference honors during that span including Kevin Campbell ('84), Tim Deitz ('85), Bobby Edwards ('87, '88), Fred Farwell ('85), Steve Parker ('86) and Tim Peters ('87).

Van Horn and Jorn coached together on the UA staff from 1985-88. Van Horn was a graduate assistant while Jorn was in the midst of his first stint as UA's pitching coach.

Jorn left the Razorback program in January of 1989 to work in player development in the New York Yankees' minor league system. He was the pitching coach at Class A Prince William, Va., in the Carolina League in 1989, helping the Cannons to a league title. Jorn then served in the same position in the Class A South Atlantic League in Greensboro, N.C., in 1990. He spent two years (1991-92) as the pitching coach at the Yankees' Class AA affiliate in Albany, N.Y., helping them to a league championship in 1991.

He joined the New York Mets' organization in 1993 and worked with their Class A South Atlantic League affiliate in Columbia, S.C., in 1993-94. Jorn transferred to Kingsport, Tenn., to serve as pitching coach for the Mets in the Class A rookie league from 1995-96, winning a league title in 1996. He then returned to Columbia, S.C., for the 1997 season.

In 1998, he was hired by the Arizona Diamondbacks and worked as the pitching coach in Lethbridge, Ontario, Canada, in the organization's short season Class A league club in the Pioneer League.

Jorn spent the next two seasons (1999-2000) with the Diamondbacks' Class A Midwest League affiliate in South Bend, Ind. He served as the pitching coach in 1999 before being elevated to the role of manager in 2000.

Jorn rejoined the Yankees' organization in 2001 as a scout covering the Midwest. He was responsible for scouting in the states of Arkansas, Kansas, Missouri, Nebraska, North Dakota and South Dakota. Following the 2001 draft, he managed the Yankees' Class A short season team playing in the New York-Penn League in Staten Island, N.Y.

Prior to his initial tenure at Arkansas, he was the pitching coach at Lurleen B. Wallace (Ala.) Junior College for one season.

Jorn and Melinda Gatling were married in April 2007. They have two daughters, Molly Kuhl (28), who is married to Kaleb Kuhl with one son, Bryant (1), and Maggie Gatling (21). Jorn also has a daughter, Christina, who has twins Kellen and Alexis (11).

Clay Goodwin is entering his seventh season with the Arkansas coaching staff as its Director of Baseball Operations.

In his capacity as the Director of Operations, Goodwin coordinates many of the behind-the-scenes aspects of the Razorback baseball program as he works in conjunction with the Arkansas coaching staff.

Prior to his appointment to Director of Operations, Goodwin spent the 2006 season as the Razorbacks' fifth-year student assistant coach. He assisted the UA coaching staff with practices, day-to-day administrative duties and on game days. He helped hitting coach Todd Butler with hitting instruction while assisting with the Razorbacks' infield. He then served as a team manager for Arkansas during the 2007 season.

Goodwin was an outstanding player for the Razorbacks over four seasons and because of that his name is littered throughout the Arkansas record book. An excellent defensive third baseman, he was also known to have an effective bat as he finished his career with a .297 average, 49 doubles, 12 home runs and 127 RBI. At the conclusion of his four years, he ranked eighth in career at bats (750), tied for ninth in career hits (223) and tied for fifth in career singles (157). Goodwin appeared in 202 games as a Razorback, making 193 starts.

He hit a team-best .332 as a sophomore and followed that with a team-leading .319 average as a junior. His run production spiked as a senior with a career-best five home runs, 17 doubles and 42 RBI. He also finished his career with a .934 fielding percentage at third base and 408 assists.

Goodwin was born on Oct. 1, 1981, and graduated from the University of Arkansas in May of 2005 with a degree in kinesiology. He completed his master's degree in the fall of 2006 at the University of Arkansas in workforce development. Goodwin is married to the former Jill Johnson. They have one daughter, Caroline (2), and are expecting their second child in June.

Kelly Moore is in her 11th year working for Coach Dave Van Horn in the Arkansas baseball office and her 12th year working for the University of Arkansas athletic department.

Her duties include coordinating team travel, administration of the equipment budget, organizing the recruiting databases and the day-to-day operations of the baseball office.

A native of Fort Smith, Ark., Moore also serves as the coordinator for the very successful Dave Van Horn Razorback Baseball Camps.

Born August 10, 1978, she holds a bachelor's degree in adult education from the University of Arkansas and is married to Max Moore, a native of Fayetteville, Ark. The couple has three children, Maddux (6), Addi Grace (4) and Sawyer (1).

Brad Flanders, who earned All-America and all-conference honors as a collegiate catcher and has six years of coaching experience at the college level, is in his first season as Arkansas' volunteer assistant coach.

Flanders will work primarily with the Razorback catchers and will also assist head coach Dave Van Horn and assistant coach Tony Vitello with the Arkansas hitters.

Flanders joins the Arkansas coaching staff after spending two seasons as the volunteer assistant coach at Saint Louis, working primarily with the catchers. Flanders worked with catcher Grant Nelson, who was drafted in the ninth round of the 2013 MLB Draft by the Arizona Diamondbacks. Nelson hit .338 in his senior season and added five home runs and 32 RBI. Defensively, Nelson threw out 15 would-be base stealers and had a .988 fielding percentage.

Before his time at Saint Louis, Flanders spent four seasons at Texarkana College, where he worked with the team's pitchers, served as the recruiting coordinator and was also the first base coach. In 2010, Texarkana's pitching staff finished the season with a 2.91 team ERA. The 2009 team won the conference championship after leading the league in strikeouts (193) and allowing the fewest walks (70). Seven pitchers that Flanders worked with at Texarkana College went on to play at the Division I level, two went to Division II and one was selected in the MLB Draft.

Flanders played two seasons at Hutchinson Community College, earning junior college All-America honors in 2002 and also earning all-conference and all-region honors. Flanders then played two seasons at the University of Missouri where he earned All-Big 12 honors in 2003 after hitting .332 with six homers and 43 RBI. Flanders helped the Tigers to NCAA Tournament appearances in each of his two seasons at Missouri.

A native of Smithville, Mo., Flanders graduated from the University of Missouri in 2005 with a degree in agriculture.

Tim Carver Jr. is in his first season on the Razorback coaching staff as a student assistant coach. He returns to Fayetteville after lettering for Arkansas from 2009-12.

Carver was selected in the 19th round of the 2012 MLB Draft by Philadelphia and joined the Phillies' single-A affiliate that summer. He appeared in 50 games for Lakewood and scored 21 runs, hit one home run, one triple, eight doubles and recorded 18 RBI and eight stolen bases.

He ranked second on the team as a senior with a .299 batting average. He added two home runs and 30 RBI and was one of 25 players named to the watch list for the Brooks Wallace Shortstop of the Year Award. Carver tied for the team lead with 20 multi-hit games and ranked second among Razorbacks with 15 stolen bases.

In 2011, he ranked fourth in the SEC with 24 stolen bases. As a sophomore, he was a quarterfinalist for the Brooks Wallace Shortstop of the Year Award after hitting .267 with four home runs, 36 RBI and a perfect 9-for-9 on stolen base attempts.

For his career, Carver played in 219 games, including two College World Series trips, and made 204 starts. He left Arkansas with a .266 batting average with seven home runs, 89 RBI and 49 stolen bases.

A Fayetteville native, Carver is pursuing a degree in American studies.

BAUM STADIUM

BAUM STADIUM

When discussing the best college baseball facilities in the country, Baum Stadium is consistently among one of the first places mentioned. With room for more than 10,000 spectators, an impeccable playing surface and amenities that rival most minor league ballparks, it is the crown jewel of the collegiate ranks. Of course the physical properties of Baum Stadium are only a portion of the baseball experience with the remainder in the form of fans that flock to the corner of Razorback Road and 15th Street to watch their Razorbacks take on all comers.

Officially named Baum Stadium at George Cole Field at its dedication on May 3, 1996, the facility derives its name from primary backers as well as from the history of Razorback baseball. Arkansas' facility prior to Baum Stadium was George Cole Field, and the new park preserved the tradition with its current name.

In 1998, Baum Stadium received a special honor when it was named the nation's number one facility in Baseball America's poll of best college facilities. Five years later it took second in the same poll, cementing its legacy as one of the best facilities in the nation. Since its construction, Arkansas officials have received numerous solicitations by coaches and administrators from across the country for blueprints and tours of the Razorbacks' home ballpark in an attempt to capture some of its charm. Even though Baum Stadium has been replicated to some degree, no other place in the country has the atmosphere that Baum Stadium brings to college baseball which is why it has been the host to five NCAA Regionals and an NCAA Super Regional.

Baum Stadium was one of the nation's best facilities when it was constructed, but since then it has undergone three renovations making it the envy of visiting teams. The first upgrade came prior to the 2003 season when the hitting and pitching cages were enclosed to ensure a place for Razorback players to practice year round. A total of 2,600 chair back seats also were added to the park, 1,300 of which reside on each foul line.

Baum Stadium's second renovation came a year later as 12 luxury boxes, coaches' offices, a new scoreboard and natural grass completely changed the feel of the park. A state-of-the-art scoreboard added full video, complete with a message center, and an analog clock was added to the right-center field gap, which stands 45-feet-high by 76-feet-wide. The original turf field of Baum Stadium's construction was torn out and rye grass was grown for the 2004 campaign, but replaced by a hybrid Bermuda in 2005. Part of the upgrades were made possible by contributions from the Willard and Pat Walker Charitable Foundation, Bob and Marilyn Bogle, the Pagnozzi Charities, John Tyson and Stan Ley.

The most recent major renovation to Baum Stadium came prior to the 2007 season as 20 luxury boxes were built, 1,000 chair back seats were added, restrooms constructed and the Hog Pen and picnic area expanded. A new ticket office, field lights and wall pads were added as well. The final set of upgrades to the park brought Baum Stadium's capacity to 10,737 seats with 8,237 of those coming from chair backs and 34 luxury boxes.

In the fall of 2011, future renovations to Baum Stadium were announced that will ensure that the stadium remains among the best in college baseball. New LED ribbon boards were added in 2013, and a baseball/track & field indoor training center is set to be completed in the summer of 2014. The new training facility includes a weight room, indoor batting cages and an indoor practice field. Future plans also call for luxury suites in left field and right field and a concourse that goes around the entire stadium, including a new center field entrance to the stadium.

The combination of the upgrades prior to the 2007 season and a top-10 baseball team produced then-record attendance numbers as Arkansas smashed its school record for the fourth straight year. The Razorbacks became the first team in NCAA history to average more than 8,000 tickets sold per game (8,069) as its attendance over 33 home games was 266,270. Arkansas also set a then-school record for actual attendance with 198,218 fans (6,007 per game) passing through the gates.

In 2007, Razorback fans helped set the school and then-Southeastern Conference three-game series attendance record in the May 4-6 weekend series against LSU, buying 30,564 tickets.

The superior attendance figures drawn to Baum Stadium allowed Fayetteville to host its third NCAA Regional in four years in 2007 and its fourth since 1999. Razorback fan support did not flounder as the regional was the best attended of all 16 sites, averaging 6,452 fans over its six games.

In April 2009, Baum Stadium played host to its first-ever No. 1 vs. No. 1 battle when the Razorbacks took on Arizona State. In game two of the midweek series, 11,014 fans were in attendance while 11,434 tickets were sold. Both numbers were then-facility records, topping the previous mark of 10,581 fans to see Arkansas defeat LSU in 2007.

The two-game series against the Sun Devils brought 17,300 fans through the turnstiles, a Razorback midweek record, and the 19,776 tickets sold were also a midweek series highmark.

Arkansas set a new attendance standard at Baum Stadium during the 2010 season as a record 292,734 tickets were sold to see the Razorbacks. Arkansas finished second in the country in both total attendance and average attendance (7,704). In part because of the great fan support, Arkansas was selected as an NCAA Regional host for the fifth time in program history. The regional drew more than 40,000 fans and attendance averaged 5,276 fans over the eight games.

Razorback fans continued to pack Baum Stadium in 2011 as Arkansas had six of the 20 largest crowds in school history in terms of tickets sold. The UA set a new single-game attendance record on April 9, 2011, when 11,103 fans crammed into Baum Stadium to see the Razorbacks defeat LSU 4-3 on James McCann's walk-off three-run homer in the bottom of the ninth.

The 2012 season saw Arkansas play a school-record 36 regular season home games. The Razorbacks finished second in the country in average attendance and third in total attendance. A total of 260,468 tickets were sold over the 33 home dates, an average of 7,892 tickets sold per game. Arkansas sold more than 7,000 tickets for 23 of the team's 36 home games.

Arkansas again ranked second in the country in average attendance in 2013 with 8,335 tickets sold per game. The Razorbacks' total attendance of 250,055 was fourth in the nation, marking the ninth straight year Baum Stadium ranked in the top five nationally in attendance.

In 2004, Baum Stadium served as host to its second NCAA Regional and first NCAA Super Regional, drawing the largest total attendance in the nation for both events. The series-clinching win over Florida State drew 10,027 fans to Baum Stadium, eclipsing the previous night's record of 9,338, set less than 24 hours earlier. In all, a combined 58,138 attended the NCAA Regional and Super Regional during the 2004 season.

Arkansas' 2004 attendance numbers were no fluke as fans continued to pour into the ballpark. The 2005 and 2006 crowds continued to set records for both paid and actual attendance. While the NCAA and SEC recognize tickets sold as their method of ranking schools, Arkansas keeps both actual patrons as well as paid attendance figures and have seen steady increases in both areas.

In an informal study by the Baton Rouge (La.) Advocate, Arkansas led the nation in actual attendance between 2004 and 2007 and was edged by LSU in 2008 by 20 fans as patrons returned to Baton Rouge's Alex Box Stadium in its final season.

Baum Stadium is the culmination of a vision that was possible only through the dedication of former Arkansas head coach Norm DeBriyn, former UA Athletics Director Frank Broyles, and the contributions of Willard and Pat Walker and Charlie Baum families.

While the efforts of DeBriyn and Broyles have been instrumental in maintaining a state-of-the-art home for UA baseball since the original George Cole Field opened in 1975, it was the generosity of the Baums and Walkers that allowed Arkansas to abandon plans to renovate its former facility and replace it with a new standard in college baseball venues.

The support of the George Cole family has been an integral part of the program's growth since the former Razorback athlete, coach and athletics director donned the cardinal and white many years ago.

"Without the support of the Charlie Baum, Willard Walker and George Cole families, this wouldn't have been possible," DeBriyn said when Baum Stadium opened. "It's an incredible facility and there is not one like it anywhere in the country. There is no way to describe the excitement our players and coaches have when they take the field."

Representatives of all three families attended the groundbreaking ceremony on Oct. 12, 1994. Eighteen months later, Arkansas' Matt Carnes delivered Baum Stadium's first pitch to Auburn's Russell Whittenburg, completing the dream. The Razorbacks defeated the Auburn Tigers 9-2 in the stadium's inaugural contest.

TOP MOMENTS IN BAUM STADIUM HISTORY

The 2011 season marked the 15th anniversary of the opening of Baum Stadium. To celebrate the 15th anniversary of one of the best stadiums in college baseball, Razorback fans voted for the top 15 moments in Baum Stadium history. More than 4,000 votes were cast in the month of April online at ArkansasRazorbacks.com. The top 15 moments were revealed during home games in May culminating with the No. 1 moment in the regular season finale against Ole Miss in a game Arkansas clinched the SEC Western Division crown with a 5-3 win. Baum Stadium opened for play on April 13, 1996 and has hosted more than 500 games in its first 17 years. The complete list of the top 15 moments in Baum Stadium history is below.

1. 2004 - Brady Toops hits a grand slam in the top of the ninth inning to beat Wichita State in the NCAA Fayetteville Regional. Arkansas went on to win the regional and advance to the College World Series.
2. 2004 - Arkansas sweeps Florida State in its first NCAA Super Regional to earn a trip to College World Series.
3. 2011 - James McCann hits a three-run walk-off home run in the bottom of the ninth inning to lead Arkansas to a 4-3 win over LSU in front of a record crowd of 11,462 fans and a national television audience on ESPNU.
4. 2008 - Pinch hitter Jacob House hits a walk-off grand slam in the bottom of the ninth inning to give Arkansas a 12-11 win over No. 13 South Carolina at Baum Stadium. The Razorbacks went on to sweep the Gamecocks in the weekend series.
5. The late Larry Shank, Baum Stadium public address announcer, singing the national anthem on Sundays and "Take Me Out to the Ball Game" during the seventh-inning stretch.
6. 2010 - Down to his last strike, Collin Kuhn hits a ninth-inning grand slam to lead Arkansas to a 17-16 comeback win over Kentucky on Easter Sunday.
7. 2009 - In a regular-season battle of No. 1 teams, Arkansas wins two mid-week games against Arizona State in front of record-breaking crowds at Baum Stadium.
8. 2001 - Arkansas sweeps No. 1 LSU in a three-game series at Baum Stadium.
9. 1998 - Arkansas rallies from an 11-run deficit in its final at-bat for an improbable win over South Carolina during a snow storm at Baum Stadium.
10. 2002 - Arkansas defeats South Carolina 8-7 in the longest game in Baum Stadium history (15 innings).
11. 2009 - Arkansas pitchers strike out a school-record 18 Missouri State batters.
12. 2010 - Arkansas hits a school record nine home runs in an NCAA Fayetteville Regional win over Grambling State.
13. 2010 - Arkansas bats around twice in the first inning, scoring a school-record 14 runs (in one inning) on its way to a 32-8 win over Saint Louis.
14. 1999 - Arkansas hosts its first NCAA Regional at Baum Stadium, defeating Delaware in the opening round.
15. 1998 - Arkansas defeats Eastern Illinois, 16-0, to give Arkansas head coach Norm DeBriyn his 1,000th career win.

GEORGE COLE FIELD

Named for the late Razorback shortstop and athletics director, George Cole Field served as Arkansas' home field from 1975 until 1996.

With a capacity of 3,000, George Cole Field was located just north of John McDonnell Field.

When it opened in 1975, George Cole Field enabled the Razorbacks to leave the field at the Washington County Fairgrounds and move into an on-campus facility for the first time.

Setting the trend for Arkansas having the finest college baseball park in the nation, George Cole Field was one of the few with artificial turf.

Donations from former Razorbacks Tim Lollar, Johnny Ray and Kevin McReynolds and their agent, Tom Selakovich, provided for the installation of lights at George Cole Field in 1985. On March 22 of that season, the Hogs defeated Southwest Conference rival Texas 5-4 in the first night baseball game on the Arkansas campus. Later that season, George Cole Field played host to the Southwest Conference Tournament for the first time. Arkansas defeated Texas 10-6 in the championship game to win its first conference tournament title. The SWC tournament came to Fayetteville again in 1988.

When the Razorbacks entered the Southeastern Conference in 1992, UA officials recognized the need to improve the school's baseball facility. While plans originally called for the improvement of George Cole Field, generous donations from the Willard and Pat Walker and Charlie Baum families, along with former Razorback Tom Pagnozzi, enabled the Razorbacks to scrap the renovation plans and start from scratch with an entirely new state-of-the-art facility.

During its 21 seasons, George Cole Field was home to a number of future major-leaguers, including Pagnozzi, Ray, McReynolds, Lollar, Les Lancaster and Jeff King.

Although the original George Cole Field played host to its last game on March 31, 1995, as South Carolina defeated Arkansas 13-2, the spirit endures in the official name of the Razorbacks' current facility: Baum Stadium at George Cole Field.

A native of Bauxite, Ark., Cole served as athletics director from July 1, 1970, until his retirement on July 1, 1973. A former All-SWC quarterback for the Razorbacks, Cole scored a then-school-record 85 points as a senior in 1927. He began his administrative career at UA as a football line coach in 1936 and became an assistant athletics director under the legendary John Barnhill in 1957.

2013 REVIEW

2013 SEASON REVIEW

ARKANSAS POSTS NCAA'S BEST ERA SINCE 1976

The Arkansas pitching staff produced one of the best seasons in NCAA history in 2013, finishing the season with a school-record 1.89 ERA that led the nation by nearly five-tenths of a run and topped the SEC with the next-closest team at 2.40. Arkansas' earned-run average was the lowest in the NCAA since Connecticut registered a 1.71 team ERA in 1976. The Razorback staff's 1.89 also shattered the previous school record of 2.74 from 1976. Additionally, the 2013 Arkansas ERA was the first sub-2.00 by a team since LeMoyne's 1.95 in 1992.

Arkansas also led the nation in hits allowed per nine innings with an average of 6.79. Opponents collected just 413 hits off Razorback pitching in 547.1 innings pitched. The second-best average in the NCAA was 6.93 and the closest SEC team was 7.05. The Razorbacks' 1.11 WHIP was second in the conference and fifth in the country, and UA's eight shutouts tied for second in the SEC and for 17th in the NCAA.

Arkansas had three pitchers ranked in the top seven of the SEC in ERA. Ryne Stanek led the conference with a 1.39 earned-run average, Barrett Astin's 1.79 was sixth and Randall Fant's 2.03 was seventh. The Razorbacks were the only staff with multiple pitchers in the top seven and one of just two with more than one pitcher ranked in the top 10 of the SEC.

The 2013 success was nothing new for the Arkansas pitchers. In 2012, Dave Jorn's group recorded a 2.83 ERA, which at the time ranked as the second-best single-season team earned-run average in school history. In the last two seasons, the Razorbacks have recorded two of the top three single-season ERAs in program history.

Colby Suggs recorded an Arkansas single-season-record 13 saves in 2013, including an SEC-high 10 in conference play

RECORD SAVES

The 2013 Razorbacks recorded 19 saves as a team in 2013, led by Colby Suggs, who broke the school's single-season individual saves record with 13 on 13 save opportunities. Suggs recorded a conference-high 10 saves in SEC play, and his 13 total saves ranked sixth in the SEC and tied for 20th in the country. Suggs broke the previous record of 12 established in 1985 and tied in 1989. Jalen Beeks added two saves to the team total, and Barrett Astin, Michael Gunn, Landon Simpson and Trent Daniel registered one save each. The 19 saves tied for the second-highest

Ryne Stanek led the Arkansas pitching staff in 2013, finishing the year with a 10-2 record, 1.39 ERA, 79 strikeouts and 72 hits allowed in 97.1 innings pitched. His ERA was the best in the SEC and ranked 8th in the NCAA, and his wins tied for fifth in the conference and for 27th in the nation. He was a first-team All-SEC and second-team All-America selection.

single-season total in school history. Arkansas ended the season 32-2 when holding a lead after eight innings.

RAZORBACKS ADVANCE TO 12TH STRAIGHT NCAA TOURNAMENT

For the 12th straight year, including all 11 seasons under head coach Dave Van Horn, Arkansas advanced to the NCAA Tournament in 2013. The Razorbacks went 2-2 in the Manhattan, Kan., regional by earning wins against Wichita State and Bryant. Arkansas is one of seven teams nationally to play in the NCAA Tournament in each of the last 12 seasons.

VAN HORN TOPS 1,000 WINS

Arkansas head coach Dave Van Horn earned the 1,000th win of his career March 9 with an 8-2 win over San Diego State. Coach Van Horn finished the 2013 season with a 1,029-485 (.680) record, including 444-245 (.644) at Arkansas.

VAN HORN CHOSEN TO LEAD TEAM USA

Head coach Dave Van Horn was named the manager for the 2014 USA Baseball Collegiate National Team in April. This will mark Coach Van Horn's second stint with Team USA after serving as an assistant coach in 2011, when the team compiled an 11-2-1 record.

STANEK EARNS ALL-AMERICA, ALL-SEC ACCLAIM

Starting pitcher Ryne Stanek was named a second-team All-American by Baseball America, Collegiate Baseball and Perfect Game and a first-team All-SEC selection. Stanek was the ace of Arkansas' pitching staff, which shattered the school record with a 1.89 team ERA. Stanek put together a stellar junior season, finishing the year with a 10-2 record and a 1.39 ERA in 16 starts. He led the SEC and ranked eighth in the NCAA in ERA, and his wins total tied for fifth in the SEC and for 27th nationally. His 1.39 ERA was the third-lowest single-season ERA in school history, while his 10 victories tied for the ninth most in a season. In 97.1 innings pitched, Stanek allowed 23 runs, 15 earned, on 72 hits and struck out 79 batters. Opponents hit .207 against Stanek. In 11 starts vs. SEC opponents, Stanek had an 8-1 record with a 0.86 ERA. Stanek allowed two or fewer earned runs in 14 of his 16 starts and allowed one earned run or less in 10 of 11 starts vs. SEC opponents.

Brian Anderson was a second-team All-SEC selection after leading the team in batting average, runs scored, hits, doubles, triples, total bases, walks, slugging percentage, on-base percentage and home runs. He also ranked in the top 10 in the conference in walks, triples, on-base percentage and runs scored.

ANDERSON ALSO EARNS ALL-SEC HONORS

Infielder Brian Anderson joined Stanek in receiving all-conference honors after being selected second-team All-SEC. Anderson started 59 games and led the Razorbacks with a .325 batting average. He also led the team with 47 runs scored, 68 hits, 12 doubles, five triples, 102 total bases, 41 walks, a .488 slugging percentage and an on-base percentage of .448. In addition, he tied for the team lead with four home runs and added 36 RBI. He ranked third in the SEC in walks, fourth in the conference in triples, fifth in on-base percentage and tied for 10th in runs scored. His three triples in conference play tied for the SEC lead, and he also ranked second with a .472 on-base percentage and third with a .581 slugging percentage against conference opponents.

ASTIN SELECTED TO SEC COMMUNITY SERVICE TEAM

Barrett Astin was recognized for his work off the baseball field by being named to the 2013 SEC Baseball Community Service Team. A member of the Arkansas Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC), Astin also was involved with several community service projects both on the UA campus and in the community. Astin volunteered his time with the Sweat Haws Salute to Excellence Program, the Razorback Canned Food Drive and Shop with Razorback SAAC. In addition, he visited the Maples Nursing home and participated in Christmas Angel Tree shopping at Leverett Elementary. He also was part of the Book Hogs Read To Win Program, visited McNair Middle School and went on a mission trip with several of his teammates to the Dominican Republic in December 2012.

ARKANSAS FINISHES SECOND IN ATTENDANCE

For the ninth straight year, Arkansas finished in the top five nationally in attendance, ranking second nationally in average attendance and fourth in total attendance. The Razorbacks averaged 8,335 tickets sold per game, with 250,055 tickets sold for 30 home dates. Arkansas had six of the top 18 crowds in terms of tickets sold in Baum Stadium history in 2013, led by 11,145 sold for the April 20 game against Texas A&M. The 2013 season also produced four of the top 16 actual crowds in stadium history, highlighted by 10,477 in the stands for the April 20 game against the Aggies.

Arkansas finished second nationally in attendance in 2013 with an average of 8,335 tickets sold per game, marking the ninth straight season Baum Stadium's attendance ranked in the top five nationally.

NCAA-LEADING 11 RAZORBACKS TAKEN IN 2013 MLB DRAFT

The Razorbacks led the country and broke a school record with 11 selections in the 2013 MLB Draft. Ryne Stanek became the seventh first-round draft pick in school history when he was taken 29th overall by Tampa Bay. Colby Suggs was selected in the second round by Miami, and Barrett Astin was a third-round selection of Milwaukee. Dominic Ficocciello was taken in the 12th round by Detroit and was followed by 17th-round picks Trent Daniel and Brandon Moore going to Colorado and Milwaukee, respectively. Jacob Morris was selected by Chicago in the 24th round. Seattle took Tyler Wright in the 26th round, and Houston added Randall Fant in the 29th. Eric Fisher, who elected to return to Arkansas for the 2014 season, was selected in the 30th round by Miami, and Matt Vinson was a 37th-round pick by Arizona.

Barrett Astin was selected in the third round of the 2013 MLB Draft. He was the ninth Razorback taken in the first three rounds since 2010 and one of an NCAA-high 11 total Razorbacks drafted last year.

Barrett Astin was one of a school record 11 Razorbacks drafted in the 2013 MLB Draft. Astin was selected in the third round by the Milwaukee Brewers.

During the summer of 2013, 14 current Razorbacks continued playing in various locations around the nation. Arkansas was represented in the Cape Cod League, the Northwoods League, the Coastal Plain League and the Texas Collegiate League.

Cape Cod League

Brian Anderson - Hyannis Harbor Hawks
Jalen Beeks - Harwich Mariners
Eric Fisher - Bourne Braves
Michael Gunn - Hyannis Harbor Hawks
Trey Killian - Wareham Gatemen
Chris Oliver - Harwich Mariners
Tyler Spoon - Hyannis Harbor Hawks

Northwoods League

Jackson Lowery - Wisconsin Woodchucks
Colin Poche - Willmar Stingers
Garrett Rucker - Wisconsin Woodchucks
Joe Serrano - Battle Creek Bombers
Landon Simpson - Waterloo Bucks

Coastal Plain League

Josh Alberius - Martinsville Mustangs

Texas Collegiate League

Brett McAfee - East Texas Pump Jacks

Jalen Beeks (left) was named a Cape Cod League All-Star after allowing less than one hit per inning, giving up 35 hits in 36.1 innings, and posting a 3.22 ERA in seven appearances, including six starts. Colin Poche (below) was ranked as the top prospect in the Northwoods League by Perfect Game, finishing the summer with a 6-2 record and 2.26 ERA. He led the Willmar Stingers with 59 strikeouts in 51.2 innings, and his six wins were also most on the team.

Brian Anderson (above) appeared in 38 games and hit .227 with one home run and nine RBI in the Cape Cod League. He also added six doubles, good for fourth on the team. Tyler Spoon (below) tied for the team lead with four home runs and was second on the team with 15 RBI. He also recorded 10 outfield assists and a .985 fielding percentage in 44 games.

2014 SEC TOURNAMENT

2014 SEC TOURNAMENT

May 20-25, 2014

Hoover Metropolitan Stadium • Hoover, Ala.

The Southeastern Conference Baseball Tournament returns for a 17th straight year to the Hoover Metropolitan Stadium in the south-Birmingham city of Hoover, Ala., May 20-25.

The 2014 SEC Baseball Tournament will continue to feature 12 teams and will remain set to begin on Tuesday, May 20. Seeds 5-12 will meet in a single elimination format on the opening day of the tournament, followed by traditional double-elimination play Wednesday-Friday. The tournament will return to single elimination play on Saturday. A total of 17 games will be played throughout the tournament.

The 12 teams are seeded 1-12 with the two divisional champions and top four seeds guaranteed opening-round byes, with the possibility of earning another later in the bracket. The tournament field will include the top teams from the SEC's Eastern and Western Divisions plus 10 at-large bids seeded 3-12 based on conference winning percentage.

Last season, an epic championship game featured LSU defeat Vanderbilt 5-4 in 11 innings in front of over 10,500 fans and a national television audience on ESPN2 in a battle between the No. 1 and No. 2 teams in the nation.

The Hoover Met formerly served as home of the Double-A Birmingham Barons (Chicago White Sox) of the Southern League. The stadium also has served as host of the NCAA Men's Soccer Final Four, as well as home to the nationally renowned Hoover Buccaneer high school football program.

Located eight miles south of Birmingham, Regions Park seats 10,800 for baseball, but can accommodate over 16,000 when the patio, banquet and side grassy areas are used. The stadium also houses 12 suites and state-of-the-art dressing and training rooms. Wireless internet access was added in 2004, concourse and signage renovation was done in 2005 and a second-level pressbox expansion, new stadium seating and an exterior facelift in 2007 completed a $6 million renovation project. A new HD video scoreboard was added in 2008, while the SEC introduced the nation to a 'pitch clock' in 2010. A new sound systems and concourse amenities such as refurbished restrooms big screen HDTVs at concessions stands were added in 2012.

The 2013 SEC Baseball Tournament drew 134,396 fans to The Hoover Met, a new record-high for the event. Eight times in the last 11 years the tournament has surpassed the six-digit mark in total attendance. Last season's tournament also saw the semifinals broadcast nationally for the first time, airing on ESPNEWS. The SEC is currently scheduled to keep its baseball tournament in Hoover at The Hoover Met through 2016 under the current contract.

All games of the tournament have been televised in high definition since 2008, with ESPN set to broadcast the championship game nationally for the fifth straight year in 2013.

HISTORY & RECORDS

ARKANSAS BASEBALL HISTORY

Few schools in America enjoy as rich a history as that of the Arkansas Razorback baseball program. With seven College World Series appearances - including a national runner-up finish in 1979 - and 26 NCAA postseason appearances to its credit, the University of Arkansas has long been considered one of the nation's elite programs.

Entering their 92nd season of play, the Razorbacks fielded their first team in 1897. Arkansas played for 24 years before seeing its team discontinued from 1930 to 1946. Hugo Bezdek, E.T. Pickering, T.T. McConnell, Claude Watts, Norman Coyle and Francis Schmidt served as coaches during the early days of the program. All but Watts and Coyle also served as head football coaches at the university.

The Razorbacks got back in the baseball business again in 1947 with Deke Brackett serving the first of three seasons as head coach. It was in 1950, with Razorback athletic trainer Bill Ferrell taking the reins, that modern day interest in the sport ignited for the first time. Though compiling only a 139-149 record during his 16-year tenure, the foundation was laid for what was to come.

Wayne Robbins took over for the popular Ferrell in 1966 and coached for four seasons, going 50-51. His successor was a fiery young coach from Wisconsin who would eventually build the program into one of national prominence.

Norm DeBriyn was hired by Arkansas Athletics Director George Cole in 1970 and charged with making the Razorbacks competitive on a conference and national level. Arkansas baseball had not been a baseball-playing member of a league since dropping out of Southwest Conference play in 1926. One of DeBriyn's first tasks was to resume a SWC schedule, a feat which was accomplished in time for the 1974 season. His teams proved competitive in one of the nation's toughest baseball leagues and Arkansas would end up qualifying for 14 of the 15 SWC Tournaments held during the Razorbacks' membership in that league.

The Razorbacks became competitive on a larger scale as well under DeBriyn. Arkansas participated in its first NCAA postseason in 1973, DeBriyn's fourth season, and made its first trip to the NCAA College World Series in just his 10th campaign.

That trip to Omaha in 1979 saw the Razorbacks finish as national runners-up to Cal State Fullerton.

In his final season as coach, DeBriyn guided Arkansas to an NCAA Super Regional after winning the Wichita Regional with a perfect 3-0 mark. The Razorbacks came within two runs of advancing to their fifth NCAA College World Series, losing the super regional two games to one to host Clemson.

A new chapter in Arkansas baseball history began in 2003 when former Razorback player and graduate assistant coach Dave Van Horn was named head coach after DeBriyn retired following the 2002 season. Since taking over at his alma mater, Van Horn has continued to grow the Razorback program with trips to the College World Series in 2004, 2009 and 2012, 11 straight NCAA Tournament berths and four super regional appearances.

Facilities have played an important role in the history of Razorback baseball. Upon DeBriyn's arrival, the Razorbacks were playing games at the run-down and disheveled Washington County Fairgrounds field barely fit for pasture land. By 1975, Arkansas had moved into George Cole Field, one of the few college ballparks in the country with an artificial playing surface. The park gave the program immediate respectability and Arkansas would advance five times to NCAA postseason play and twice to the NCAA College World Series in its first decade in the park.

Lights were added in 1985 with the help of former standouts Kevin McReynolds, Johnny Ray and Tim Lollar, a move that again advanced the program to another level.

George Cole Field was the site of the Razorback baseball program's coming of age. The Razorbacks would go 567-142-2 at the facility for a winning percentage of .799. It was the site of the school's first league tournament championship, in 1985, and home to a parade of all-conference and All-America players. McReynolds, Ray, Lollar and Tom Pagnozzi - some of the first Razorbacks to make a significant impact in Major League Baseball - were just a few of many DeBriyn pupils who honed their skills at George Cole Field and went on to excel in the majors.

Arkansas baseball is not just about those who have been able to play the game for a living. The Razorbacks have produced 94 all-conference selections (all since 1976 when Bill Montgomery was named All-Southwest Conference), 26 All-America picks (Lollar was the first in 1978), 14 freshman All-America selections, 58 all-conference tournament selections, four conference titles (1989, 1990, 1999, 2004), one conference tournament championship and nine NCAA Regional Tournament championships. Since joining the SEC in 1992, Arkansas has already placed 35 players on All-SEC lists. Adding all these feats to the fact that Arkansas baseball has seen 43 of its stars go on to play in the major leagues, has dozens currently playing professional baseball and claims seven major league first-round draft picks in McReynolds (1981), Jeff King (1986), David Walling (1999), Nick Schmidt (2007), Logan Forsythe (2008), Zack Cox (2010) and Ryne Stanek (2013).

Although he retired following the 2002 season, the magic continues with DeBriyn's subtle influence on the lives of Charlie Baum and Willard & Pat Walker families, key contributors to perhaps the crowning achievement of DeBriyn's tenure - Baum Stadium at George Cole Field. The 8,237-seat stadium, which can accommodate a crowd of 10,737, is unparalleled in the country in form and function and has moved the program to an even higher level of achievement.

Designed by the nationally acclaimed firm HOK, designers of such jewels as Oriole Park at Camden Yards, Coors Field and Progressive Field, Baum Stadium at George Cole Field played host to its first game on April 13, 1996, as a crowd of 3,328 saw the Razorbacks defeat Auburn in a doubleheader sweep. Named the best college baseball facility in the nation by Baseball America in 1998, the stadium has ignited the interest of Razorback fans throughout the region and helped Arkansas lead the nation in tickets sold in 2007 with 8,069 per game and set a then-NCAA record in the process.

Many former Razorbacks have given something back to the program that helped propel them to the professional ranks, but none so much as the all-star catcher Pagnozzi. In addition to contributing the funds which made possible the Razorback clubhouse that bears his name, the annual

Tom Pagnozzi Invitational Golf Tournament and surrounding events raise thousands of dollars each year for the Arkansas baseball program.

Memorable moments of Arkansas baseball vary with the observer. Arkansas' first NCAA postseason appearance in 1973 at Arlington Stadium in Arlington, Texas, will long be considered a watershed moment for DeBriyn's program. Though the Razorbacks lost two straight, it was a signal the program had arrived. Just six years later, the Razorbacks raced through the NCAA East Regional in Tallahassee, Fla., in four games to advance to the College World Series in Omaha, Neb., for the first time.

Three more wins in the then-true double elimination event put Arkansas in the championship game against Cal State Fullerton. Fullerton, playing with one loss, won the first championship game 13-10 to force a winner-take-all rematch. Fullerton won that one 2-1, sending the disappointed Razorbacks home with the national runner-up trophy.

A third-place finish at the 1985 CWS also saw the Razorbacks go through Tallahassee and started a five-year stretch in which Arkansas advanced to Omaha three times, each time on an odd year. Fifth-place finishes in 1987 and 1989 were outstanding achievements for phenomenal teams.

Arkansas played host to its first Southwest Conference tournament in 1985, winning in three straight games at George Cole Field with an opening win over Baylor and back-to-back victories over rival Texas. It was another example of facilities playing a role in the program's success - only the addition of lights that season enabled the school to snare the tournament host honor from traditional sites Texas and Texas A&M.

Memorable moments are hard to narrow to such a small space but would include some hard-to-forget home runs and pitching performances. Ralph Kraus ushered in the school's first home night game in classic style with a home run in the bottom of the ninth inning to defeat Texas before thousands in 1985. McReynolds will long be known for his towering shots both at George Cole Field and at the SWC Tournament at Texas A&M in 1980.

There have been 12 no-hitters in school history, the most recent by the combination of Nick Schmidt, Brian McLelland and Devin Collis in 2006. They blanked Oklahoma State to join former Razorbacks Rich Erwin (1976), David Rhodes (1977), Scott Glanz (1982), Tim Deitz (1983), Fred Faust (1984), Steve Parker (1986), Dennis Fletcher-Tim Sherrill-Tim Peters (1987), Brian Cook-Brian Dennison (1991), Todd Abbott (1994), Richie Nye (1996) and Scott Roehl (2001) as no-hit specialists. Steve Krueger recorded the Southwest Conference's lowest league ERA in 1979 and 1980.

Another Nye helped the Razorbacks make history again on the final day of the 1999 regular season. Rodney Nye homered in each of his first three trips to the plate to help the Razorbacks to a victory that gave UA its first SEC Western Division and overall titles.

Baum Stadium has already seen its share of memorable games in its short lifespan, such as Arkansas' 11-run rally to beat South Carolina 17-16 in 1998 and a 16-0 win over Eastern Illinois in which David Walling fanned 16 batters to help give Norm DeBriyn his 1,000th career victory.

In 1999, the Razorbacks took their home field advantage to a new level, going 14-1 in home SEC games and ending the season with 13 consecutive conference victories at the facility. The solid play in home league games helped the Razorbacks earn division and overall league titles and brought an NCAA regional to the UA campus for the first time in school history.

In 2004, Arkansas duplicated the feat again earning a share of the SEC crown and topping the SEC West. Picked last in the division to begin the season, Van Horn guided this gritty bunch of Razorbacks to their second league title since joining the SEC. For their efforts, Arkansas earned a coveted national seed in the NCAA Tournament draw and hosted its second regional in school history.

The Razorbacks hosted the largest attended NCAA regional as 38,773 fans packed Baum Stadium for the three-day event. Arkansas didn't disappoint, although it took a historic comeback to send the home crowd away happy. Down to its last out in an elimination game against Wichita State, Arkansas got a grand slam from junior catcher Brady Toops to complete an improbable 11-9 comeback win against Wichita State. Arkansas held off the Shockers 4-3 in the regional final to secure the school's first-ever NCAA Super Regional.

The following weekend, Arkansas dominated No. 12 Florida State in a two-game sweep of the Seminoles televised nationally by ESPN. Razorback fans set a new NCAA record for super regional attendance at an on-campus venue drawing 9,338 on Friday and 10,027 on Saturday. With the 4-2 win on Saturday, Arkansas clinched its fifth College World Series berth.

Omaha did not prove as kind to the Razorbacks, as Arkansas dropped a pair of games to Texas and Arizona. Despite the quick exit, the improbable run of this underdog Razorback squad captured the imagination of UA fans everywhere laying the groundwork for even bigger and better things to come.

During the 2009 regular season, Arkansas earned its first-ever No. 1 ranking and defeated Arizona State in front of a then-Baum-record 11,014 fans in the facility's first matchup between top-ranked teams; the Sun Devils were also ranked No. 1 at the time.

In 2009, having swept through the Norman Regional and Tallahassee Super Regional, upsetting national seeds Oklahoma and Florida State, respectively, the Razorbacks earned their sixth trip to Omaha.

Arkansas split its first two games, besting Cal State Fullerton and then losing to LSU. The Razorbacks found themselves one out away from elimination against Virginia before Brett Eibner lifted a two-run shot to left field to tie the game. Arkansas went on to win the instant classic 4-3 in 12 innings. The Razorbacks closed out the CWS with a tie for third place.

The Razorbacks reached the College World Series for the third time under Van Horn in 2012 as Arkansas put together a memorable postseason run that saw them down old SWC rivals Rice and Baylor on their home fields. Arkansas opened its tournament run in Houston as it defeated Sam Houston State twice and downed eighth-ranked Rice in a 1-0 shutout.

The next week, Arkansas returned to the state of Texas and faced No. 4 national seed Baylor. After dropping the opener of the super regional, Arkansas responded by winning the next two games to punch its ticket to Omaha. The decisive game of the Super Regional was a classic pitcher's duel. The game was scoreless until the top of the 10th inning when Arkansas broke through on Jake Wise's RBI single, scoring Brian Anderson. Randall Fant, Nolan Sanburn, Brandon Moore, Trent Daniel and Colby Suggs combined to shut down the high-powered Baylor offense and send Arkansas to Omaha.

In the College World Series, the Razorbacks opened by winning its first two games, defeating Kent State 8-1 in the opener and then downing South Carolina 2-1 to snap the Gamecocks' 22-game NCAA postseason win streak. Arkansas would finish tied for third in the CWS after South Carolina defeated the Razorbacks twice.

A rich history with legendary players, coaches and games make Arkansas baseball a unique and treasured program. With Baum Stadium as a backdrop for the Razorbacks' continued competition in the toughest league in the nation, Arkansas baseball promises to bring fans many more great moments for many years to come.

Key: Players selected in the June first-year player draft unless otherwise noted. Following the 1987 season there has only been one draft (June Draft). The first MLB Draft was held in 1965. Prior to 1965, players just signed professional contracts once their collegiate careers were over.

§ - Selected in January draft
% - Selected in June secondary draft
* - Played or plays in the Major Leagues
^ - Returned to school

UNIVERSITY OF ARKANSAS

The YOU of A

The University of Arkansas provides a student-centered learning experience focused on research, innovation and outreach as a part of educating future leaders. Consistently ranked among the top public universities and best values in the U.S., the U of A is classified among the top two percent of institutions nationwide with the highest possible level of research activity.

The university's 25,000 students represent all 50 states and more than 120 countries. The U of A has 10 colleges and schools offering more than 210 academic programs — while maintaining a low student-to-faculty ratio that promotes personal attention and mentoring opportunities.

Founded in 1871, the university is the oldest publicly supported institution in the state and is the flagship of the University of Arkansas System. The U of A campus features distinctive architecture, including its signature building, Old Main, finished in 1875. The iconic building now houses the J. William Fulbright College of Arts and Sciences. The college is named in honor of former U of A President (and, later, U.S. Senator) J. William Fulbright, who helped create the prestigious international scholarship and fellowship programs that bear his name.

The university promotes undergraduate research in virtually every discipline and has an outstanding national reputation in many areas, including agriculture, architecture, business, creative writing, engineering, high-density electronics and nanoscience, as well as sustainability and environmental sciences. Programs such as Supply Chain Management, Rehabilitation Counseling, Industrial Engineering and Biological and Agricultural Engineering rank among the best in the country.

The University of Arkansas offers a vibrant campus life that is culturally, intellectually and socially enriching. On our campus you'll find more than 300 registered student organizations, from special interest to professional groups, as well as 33 Greek organizations, making it easy and rewarding to get involved. Every semester offers opportunities to attend musical performances, theater productions, art exhibits, concerts, free films, poetry readings, visiting speakers and hundreds of other varied events.

Visit arkansas.edu for more information about the University of Arkansas.

HISTORIC SENIOR WALK

As you make your way around campus, you're sure to notice something unique about many of the sidewalks. Historic Senior Walk showcases the names of more than 150,000 University of Arkansas graduates, grouped by year of graduation. Senior Walk is the university's longest tradition in both length and years. It's concrete proof of the university's commitment to students.

Senior Walk is also a perfect example of how the University of Arkansas celebrates its history and traditions while focusing on innovations for the future. When the costs involved in hand-etching names into concrete forced numerous other universities to give up, the U of A turned to its physical plant and engineering school grads to create a one-of-a-kind computerized sandblasting machine: the SandHog. Each summer, the SandHog roars across campus etching the names of new graduates into sidewalks.

Arkansas is a natural wonder of forests, mountains and lakes framed by picturesque rivers and streams. Some of the nation's best outdoor amenities and most spectacular hiking trails are within a short drive of campus.

OLD MAIN

One of the original buildings on Arkansas' campus, Old Main symbolizes the strong connection to the past and the focus upon the future which come together in the present at the University of Arkansas. Completed in 1875, Old Main stood the test of time until the mid-1980s when age and modern building codes threatened to send it to the wrecking ball as had happened to its sister building at the University of Illinois. A major fund-raising campaign by alumni totally renovated Old Main. Reopening in 1992, the building maintains the feel of a Victorian-era building with high ceilings and elaborate wooden trim. Just below the surface of the period hardwood floors, Old Main is hard-wired to the internet and built to last well into its second century.

Even with renovation, Old Main remained unfinished until 2005. One of the gifts during the Campaign for the Twenty-First Century specified the installation of a clock, originally planned for the blank faces of the south tower.

As mentioned, Old Main was built from shared plans with its counterpart on the Illinois campus, with one important difference. The north tower of Arkansas' Old Main is taller than the south tower. Legend says this was symbolic of the Civil War as the lead engineer was a northern veteran.

BEYOND CAMPUS

Fayetteville is routinely considered among the country's finest college towns and the surrounding Northwest Arkansas region is regularly ranked one of the best places to live in the U.S. You'll find a number of attractions that will contribute to a rich college experience.

Three of America's largest corporations have their world headquarters in the region: Walmart, Tyson Foods and J.B. Hunt Transportation, Inc. Their close proximity to the U of A campus, along with their executives' and employees' active involvement in university life, offers students and faculty exceptional opportunities for research partnerships, internships, and post-graduation employment.

G. DAVID GEARHART CHANCELLOR OF THE UNIVERSITY OF ARKANSAS

Dr. G. David Gearhart became the chancellor of the University of Arkansas on July 1, 2008, following 10 years of service to the university as vice chancellor for University Advancement. Previously he served as senior vice president and managing director of the international consulting firm Grenzbach Glier & Associates, Inc. Before his service at GG&A, Dr. Gearhart was senior vice president of Penn State University, during which time he was named a Fulbright Scholar, studying at Oxford University in Oxford, England.

His Bachelor of Arts degree is from Westminster College where he was named a distinguished alumnus in 1992. Both his law degree and his Doctor of Education degree are from the University of Arkansas. He is a native of Fayetteville.

Prior to being appointed chancellor, Dr. Gearhart oversaw the Campaign for the Twenty-First Century, the most successful capital campaign in Arkansas history, which raised more than $1 billion for academic programs. That campaign included a $300 million gift to found an Honors College and endow the Graduate School.

In every imaginable way, the university was transformed by this campaign.

"At the University of Arkansas our ultimate purpose is to improve the human condition, to make life better for our citizens and our state and to contribute to the general welfare of our nation," says Gearhart. "Thanks in part to the Campaign for the Twenty-First Century, we've become recognized as a rising star as a major public research university in a state where higher education must play an increasingly larger role in the lives of its citizens. Working with our sister public institutions and in partnership with our own university system, we must work hard and smart to increase the college participation rate and to strengthen the quality of Arkansas' higher education. We must be seen as enthusiastic leaders in this venture, all in a time of diminished public resources nationally that will not make it easy, but a challenge that we at the university must embrace."

As chancellor, Dr. Gearhart instituted the first tuition freeze in 24 years and implemented a $350 million campus building renovation and refurbishment plan, as well as a campus-wide energy savings plan. He has also undertaken a renewed emphasis on the arts on campus, including the establishment of the "All Steinway Campus" and the Jim and Joyce Faulkner Performing Arts Center, scheduled to open in 2015. He is well known for his emphasis on "Students First," a philosophy which has resonated across campus and beyond.

In 2010, the Carnegie Foundation awarded the university its highest research classification; in August 2011, the Chronicle of Higher Education named the University of Arkansas on its list of "Great Colleges to Work For"; and most recently, U.S. News and World Report recognized the university as being among public institutions' "up-and-comers."

During his tenure, the university has undertaken a dramatic marketing program and has promoted transparency and accountability. Dr. Gearhart implemented a major cost savings program that has already resulted in almost $62 million in cost reduction and savings. Campus enrollment has also grown dramatically to more than 25,000 students. At the same time, diversity in the student body has increased significantly. Dr. Gearhart has been heavily involved in the promotion and advocacy of the Dream Act on both the national and state levels.

In addition to his responsibilities as chancellor, Gearhart is a tenured member of the faculty in the College of Education and Health Professions, holding the rank of professor. A nationally respected expert in capital campaigns, he is the author of two books, The Capital Campaign in Higher Education and Philanthropy, Fund Raising and the Capital Campaign, as well as numerous articles.

Among his current professional affiliations, Gearhart serves as vice president of the University of Arkansas Fayetteville Campus Foundation, is a member of the board of advisors for the Arkansas World Trade Center, is a member of the Northwest Arkansas Council, and is a member of the advisory board of the Pryor Center for Arkansas Oral and Visual History. He also is a licensed attorney in the state of Arkansas.

He and his wife of 39 years, Jane, have two children and three grandchildren.

DR. SHARON HUNT FACULTY ATHLETICS REPRESENTATIVE

Chancellor G. David Gearhart appointed Dr. Sharon Hunt to be the faculty athletics representative (FAR) for the University of Arkansas in August 2010.

Dr. Hunt is the first woman and non-lawyer to hold the post. She has been on the University of Arkansas faculty since 1990, and she served as the department head of the Department of Health, Human Performance and Recreation from 1990-2011, except for the 2000-01 academic year when she served as the interim dean of the College of Education and Health Professions. On June 30, 2011 Dr. Hunt returned to the faculty at the rank of Professor giving her more time to devote to the FAR position.

Dr. Hunt received her bachelor's and master's degrees in physical education from the University of Arkansas. She went on to earn a Doctor of Education degree from Georgia. Upon completing her doctoral degree, she joined the faculty of the University of Kentucky. In 1990, she and her family returned to Fayetteville.

Dr. Hunt was instrumental in establishing the graduate athletic training education program in the College of Education and Health Professions, and she has worked closely with athletics on that program. Two endowed scholarships for athletic training students in honor of longtime Razorback trainers Dean Weber and the late Bill Ferrell were established through the athletics department. Dr. Hunt has been married to David Hunt since 1973, and they have a son and daughter as well as one grandson and granddaughter.

JEFF LONG

VICE CHANCELLOR AND DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

In his sixth full year as Vice Chancellor and Director of Athletics, Jeff Long has helped transform the University of Arkansas' Department of Intercollegiate Athletics into one of the most successful and nationally respected programs in the country. Along the way, Long has gained national attention and earned numerous awards for his progressive leadership of a program encompassing 19 sports and more than 460 student-athletes.

Long's recent appointment as the first ever chairman of the College Football Playoff Selection committee provided further evidence that he is already one of the most respected and influential leaders within intercollegiate athletics.

Long chairs a committee of 13 individuals that collectively features more than 230 years of college football experience two former top-level university administrators, five current athletics directors, three members of the College Football Hall of Fame, three former college football head coaches, a former United States Secretary of State, a former member of Congress, and a retired three-star general. As the playoff's selection committee's first chairman, Long will not only lead the distinguished group in selecting the best four college football teams for the inaugural playoff in 2014, but will help the committee define the parameters for selections for years to come.

Even before his appointment as the College Football Playoff Selection Committee's Chairman, Long's leadership and unwavering commitment to the student-athletes and maintaining integrity within intercollegiate athletics has not gone unnoticed. In 2013, Long was named as an Under Armour Athletics Director of the Year for the Football Bowl Subdivision. In 2012, Long was named a finalist for the SportsBusiness Journal and SportsBusiness Daily Athletic Director of the Year. In the spring of 2012, the Donald W. Reynolds Foundation and longtime chairman Fred W. Smith made a combined gift of more than $1.25 million to the program in recognition of Long's leadership of Razorback Athletics.

Long leads a comprehensive athletics program committed to the development of student-athletes academically, athletically and socially. A member of Chancellor G. David Gearhart's Executive Committee, Long is helping to chart the course for the future of higher education at the University of Arkansas while integrating Razorback Athletics into the campus community.

In each of the past four years, Razorback Athletics has transferred funds totaling more than $1 million to support the university's academic mission. The department's total support of university and student programs and initiatives includes $1.9 million in direct funding of academic programs. In 2012, Razorback Athletics committed an additional $1.2 million annually to fund a new classroom and laboratory building to serve the entire University of Arkansas student population.

In Long's tenure, Arkansas has captured 15 conference championships and advanced to 81 post-season competitions, including the school's first Bowl Championship Series appearance in football and a national title at the 2013 NCAA Men's Indoor Track and Field Championships. In 2012-13, Arkansas finished No. 21 in the Learfield Sports Directors Cup, a year-long competition ranking the nation's most successful intercollegiate athletic programs, marking the fifth time in the past six years the Razorbacks have finished in the top 25.

In the classroom, the Razorbacks continue to set new standards including posting a school record student-athlete grade point average of 3.09 in 2012-13. It marked the fifth consecutive year Razorback student-athletes posted a GPA exceeding 3.0. In 2013, for the first time in history, Arkansas exceeded the national APR multi-year rate in all 19 sports and had a record five teams earn NCAA Public Recognition awards. Graduation success rates continue to rise with a total of 94 current or former Razorback student-athletes graduating in 2012-13.

Student-athlete development has also been a priority including the establishment of the Razorback Leadership Academy, the first of its kind in the Southeastern Conference. In the community, Razorback student-athletes are more active than ever volunteering more than 6,500 hours of time for more various agencies, organizations and schools around the state.

One of the nation's most active athletic directors on Twitter, Long embraces the opportunity to interact with members of the Razorback Nation whether in person or through social media.

Long was selected to replace legendary athletic director and former Razorback football coach Frank Broyles and even before he officially took the reins on Jan. 1, 2008, Arkansas announced that it would combine its previously independent men's and women's athletic programs into one combined athletic program. Long adeptly blended the men's and women's athletic departments into one unified department and established a new administrative structure.

Under Long's leadership, the program has fortified its financial standing ensuring more support for the development of student-athletes. According to USA Today, Arkansas is one of only 23 financially self-sustaining Division I-A athletic programs in the nation. As economic indicators were beginning to point toward challenging economic times, Long signed Arkansas to a deal with IMG College to form Razorback Sports Properties that guarantees the Razorback program $73 million during the course of the decade-long agreement.

Long also negotiated an extensive all sports apparel and footwear agreement with NIKE, Inc. that will outfit all 19 Razorback sports programs through the 2014-15 season. In December 2012, Forbes Magazine estimated the value of the Razorback Football program at $83 million, ranking the University of Arkansas in the top 10 nationally for the second consecutive year.

In 2010, Long moved to help meet the growing financial needs of fielding a nationally competitive all sports program. The athletic department launched the "Answer the Call" campaign through the Razorback Foundation which resulted in more than 2,600 new members and helped generate more than $6.5 million in additional support for Razorback student-athletes. In 2012, Long guided the program to a record breaking fundraising year further bolstering Arkansas' financial strength.

With an eye towards the future, Long commissioned a comprehensive plan to assess the future facility needs of the program. Unveiled in October 2011, the Razorback Athletic Facilities Master Plan provided a vision and the road map for $320 million of facility renovations and additions that will help all 19 Razorback sports remain competitive in the Southeastern Conference and nationally over the next 30 years. The first major project from the master plan, the $40 million Fred W. Smith Football Center, opened in the summer of 2013. Three other facilities, a Student-Athlete Success Center, a basketball indoor practice facility and a baseball and track indoor training facility have all been approved and are moving forward to construction. As part of the next step in the plan, a market and cost analysis study is being conducted on a potential north end zone expansion to Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium.

According to a recent economic impact study, Razorback Athletics will have an estimated economic impact of more than $1 billion in the next five years. The study estimated that Razorback Athletics generates $153.6 million annually to the region's economy including the benefits of drawing more than a million fans annually to campus to cheer on the Razorbacks. Planned athletic construction during the course of the next five years will generate another $239.7 million.

A veteran administrator with a track record of the highest commitment to the concept of "student-athlete," Long has had more than two decades experience in athletic administration at the Division I level including at the University of Pittsburgh, University of Oklahoma, University of Michigan, Virginia Tech University, Eastern Kentucky University and Rice University. Long also understands the coach's perspective from time spent in coaching staff positions at Duke University, University of Michigan and North Carolina State University.

His experience as an athletic director and administrator in five of the six Bowl Championship Series conferences – the Big 12, Big Ten, Big East, Atlantic Coast and SEC - gives Long a uniquely informed perspective on intercollegiate athletics.

On the forefront of NCAA governance, Long has served on the NCAA Management Council, the NCAA's Sports Wagering Task Force and as a member of the Executive Committee of the Division I-A Athletic Directors' Association. Long currently serves on the NCAA Championships/Sports Management Cabinet.

Prior to assuming his current roles at Arkansas, Long served for four years as the athletic director at the University of Pittsburgh. Long redefined Pitt athletics, most notably through the "Quest for Excellence" campaign that raised nearly $34 million to enhance the student-athlete experience. During his tenure the Panthers' were selected as the No. 17 overall program in the nation in the December 2006 Sports Illustrated on Campus' All-Sport Rankings.

Before arriving at Pitt, Long was senior associate athletic director at Oklahoma for two and a half years overseeing external affairs for the Sooners. In addition, Long was the primary administrator for the Sooners' highly successful football and men's basketball programs, along with sport supervision of baseball, wrestling and both golf teams.

Long's first appointment as a director of athletics was at Eastern Kentucky where he served for two and a half years. Prior to Eastern, Long had a brief stay with Virginia Tech as an associate athletics director.

He began his career in college athletic administration at Michigan, hired by legendary coach and athletics director, the late Bo Schembechler. During his seasons with the Wolverines, Long was promoted through a series of posts to the position of associate athletics director.

A former two-sport athlete at Ohio Wesleyan, Long earned seven varsity letters for the Bishops in football and baseball before completing his degree in economics in 1982. He started his post-graduate career in athletics working on head coach Tom Reed's staff as a graduate assistant football coach at the cradle of coaches, Miami University of Ohio. Long earned his master's in education at Miami in 1983, moving on to football staff positions at Rice, Duke and N.C. State prior to joining Michigan.

An Ohio native from Kettering, Long is married to the former Fanny Gellrich of Ann Arbor, Mich. The Longs have two daughters, Stephanie and Christina.

ATHLETIC DEPARTMENT ADMINISTRATION

BEV LEWIS

Associate Vice Chancellor & Executive Associate Athletic Director

Bev Lewis has served the University of Arkansas and its Razorback athletic programs for more than three decades.

The former women's athletic director prior to the department merger in 2007-08, Lewis now serves as the associate vice chancellor and executive associate athletic director.

Lewis is the coordinator of a five-member sport administrator group that provides day-to-day administrative support for each of Arkansas' 19 sports. Lewis is the sport administrator for men's and women's cross country, men's and women's track and field, men's and women's golf, gymnastics, softball and volleyball. In addition, Lewis oversees and coordinates the Razorback Performance Team, including the strength and conditioning, nutrition, psychology, athletic training and sports medicine programs. She also serves as a liaison to the faculty senate and the faculty athletic committee, and coordinates the department's Title IX compliance and strategic planning as well as assists with fundraising.

The largest portion of her service to the university was her 19-year tenure as the Director of Women's Athletics. As a result of her strong emphasis on the classroom, Razorback female student-athletes received numerous academic honors including national academic All-American of the year, team academic national titles and the university's first two SEC/H. Boyd McWhorter Scholar-Athletes of the Year. To increase athletic participation for women at Arkansas, she also oversaw the addition of four sports at the university turning her tenure-volleyball, golf, gymnastics and softball and each team went on to become nationally competitive.

Her leadership was also a part of the success of the university's Campaign for the Twenty-First Century. Lewis directed Women's Athletics to over $11.5 million in direct support for women's teams. During the campaign, Lewis received one of her greatest personal honors as Bob and Marilyn Bogle requested that Arkansas' new facility be named the Bev Lewis Center for Women's Athletics. In 1998, she was voted into the University Of Arkansas Hall Of Honor.

Lewis served collegiate athletics at the highest level as an administrator, as a member of the NCAA Management Council, the NCAA Championship Cabinet and the Southeastern Conference Executive Committee. Prior to assuming the duties of AD, Lewis was women's cross country and track coach. Her Arkansas coaching milestones included the first women's team to achieve a national ranking, first team ranked in the top 10 and the first women's team to win a conference championship.

Lewis earned her bachelor's degree from Central Michigan in 1979 and followed it with her master's from Purdue prior to her arrival at Arkansas in 1981. The former Bev Rouse is married to Harley Lewis.

JON FAGG

Senior Associate Athletic Director for Administration and Governance

Jon Fagg joined the University of Arkansas in June of 2008. He is a member of the senior management group and assists the Vice Chancellor and Director of Athletics in the daily administration of the department.

Fagg serves as the sport administrator for football and men's basketball. He also has oversight of the university's compliance program and Office of Student-Athlete Success, which encompasses academic support, student-athlete development and career development services for Razorback student-athletes.

Fagg came to Arkansas after spending seven years at North Carolina State. Hired in March 2001, he served four and half years as an assistant athletics director for compliance before being promoted to associate athletics director for compliance in the fall of 2005. While with the Wolfpack, Fagg's responsibilities included coordinating all aspects of the NCAA compliance program, including rules education for intercollegiate staff and related university personnel, and advisement, education and interpretations regarding NCAA rules and regulations. He also served as sport administrator for the wrestling and women's soccer programs.

Prior to his tenure at North Carolina State, Fagg spent three years as the assistant athletics director for compliance at Fresno State. He also served one year as director of compliance for the Big South Conference. His first athletics administrative experience came at Mars Hill College where he handled compliance duties as well as serving as an assistant coach for the football team for three seasons. His coaching experience also includes a stint as an assistant coach at Davidson from February 1992 to June 1993 and as a GA coach at his alma mater, the University of Arizona, from January 1991 to February 1992.

Fagg and his wife Amanda have three children: Jon Madison and twins, Reed and Ellie.

MATT TRANTHAM

Senior Associate Athletic Director for Internal Operations

Matt Trantham joined the University of Arkansas in 2008 as the senior associate athletic director for internal operations. He oversees all Razorback facilities and events.

With this role, Trantham is overseeing the Razorback Athletics Facilities Master Plan recently unveiled in October 2011. Additionally, he served as administrative supervisor for the new Fred W. Smith Football Center recently completed during the the Summer. Additional projects currently underway as part of the Master Plan are the Baseball & Track Indoor Training Center, Basketball Performance Center and Student-Athlete Success Center.

He is also facilitating the current Market and Cost Analysis on a future expansion of the North End Zone in Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium. Other projects supervised have been the $2.5 million renovation of Bud Walton Arena in 2008, the $1.3 million installation of synthetic playing surface and $1.2 million installation of ribbon boards at Donald W. Reynolds Razorback stadium in 2009, expansion of Razorback soccer team facilities in 2011 and $4.6 million installation of new video displays at Donald W. Reynolds Razorback stadium prior to the 2012 season.

Prior to joining Arkansas, Trantham began his career with the University of Oklahoma in July 1999 as the promotions director for the athletic department where he worked with all 20 of OU's teams. He was named assistant athletic director for event management in 2004 and was promoted to associate athletic director in 2006.

Prior to joining the Sooners, Trantham spent five seasons in professional sports in Washington, D.C. Trantham earned his bachelor's of science degree in business management from Centenary College in 1990 and a master's degree in sports management from the United States Sports Academy in 1998.

Trantham and wife Kristen are parents of two sons, Will and Davis, and two daughters, Morgan and Paige.

ATHLETIC DEPARTMENT ADMINISTRATION

CLAYTON HAMILTON

Senior Associate Athletic Director and Chief Financial Officer

Clayton Hamilton joined the University of Arkansas in January 2010 and serves in the role of Senior Associate Athletics Director and Chief Financial Officer with oversight of the athletic department's financial affairs, business operations, contracts, human resources, payroll and retail store operations. Hamilton serves as a member of the department's Executive Staff, Senior Administrative Staff, Sport Administrator Group and Bowl Management Committee.

While at Arkansas, Hamilton has managed the financial affairs and business operations for all of Razorback Athletics, which includes revenues that now approach $100 million on an annual basis, and which represents one of the few financially self-sustaining athletic programs in all of college athletics. In addition, he has managed the financial planning for the department's facility master plan, which includes $98 million of projects that have been completed or are currently in progress. Hamilton also serves as an adjunct professor in the university's sports management program.

Prior to joining Arkansas, Hamilton spent three years as Associate Athletics Director for Business for the Colorado Buffalos and six years in various financial management positions for the Florida State Seminoles. Hamilton also has experience working in professional sports with both the Dallas Cowboys and Cleveland Cavaliers, and in corporate finance with the former Little Rock-based ALLTEL Corporation.

He is an active member of the College Athletic Business Management Association, having served most recently as president in 2009, and has served on various NCAA strategic task forces. He is also a past recipient of the College Athletic Business Manager of the Year Award, and was recognized within the State of Arkansas in 2011 as one of Northwest Arkansas' Top Forty Under 40. Hamilton also serves on the Board of Directors for the Walton Arts Center Foundation.

A native of Little Rock, Ark., Hamilton graduated from the University of Arkansas in 1994 with a bachelor's degree in accounting. He obtained a master's degree in sports management from the United States Sports Academy in 1997 and his CPA certification from the State of Arkansas in 1998.

Hamilton and his wife Stephanie have two daughters, Lauren and Caylee.

MICHAEL WADDELL

Senior Associate Athletic Director for External Operations and Strategic Communications

Michael Waddell joined the Razorback Athletic Department in June 2013 as the Senior Associate Athletic Director for External Operations and Strategic Communications.

Waddell joins the athletic department's senior leadership team and oversees the department's external areas including marketing, licensing, communications, public relations, ticket operations and RazorVision. He is also the department's liaison with the new SEC Network leading the program's strategic engagement with the new television channel and digital platform.

Prior to joining Arkansas, Waddell served as the Director of Athletics at Towson University. At Towson, Waddell was the lead administrator for the Colonial Athletic Association (CAA) program which captured a record seven CAA Championships in 2012-13 and recorded the biggest one-year turnaround in NCAA men's basketball history. Waddell also positioned Towson as one of the country's most progressive programs in the areas of marketing, communications and corporate sponsorships, including naming rights for Towson's new 5,200-seat SECU Arena, which opened in June 2013, and a new multi-year footwear and apparel agreement with Baltimore-based Under Armour.

Prior to being named the athletic director at Towson, Waddell spent five years as a senior associate athletic director for external relations at the University of Cincinnati. At Cincinnati, Waddell's primary responsibility was to oversee the revenue generating areas that included marketing/fan development, ticket sales/customer service, sports communications, game day programming, and information technology. He coordinated all of Cincinnati's football bowl planning, including back-to-back BCS Bowl Appearances in 2009 (FedEx Orange Bowl) and 2010 (Allstate Sugar Bowl).

Prior to his Cincinnati assignment, Waddell served as the associate athletics director for external relations at the University of Akron where sports marketing revenues increased more than five-fold during his tenure through the creation of the "Team Akron" corporate patron program. Waddell served as the Interim Director of Athletics at Akron in the Fall of 2005.

Before joining the Akron staff, Waddell served as the director of marketing and broadcasting at the United States Military Academy at West Point where he was responsible for the development of all athletics corporate partnerships, marketing, promotions and multimedia development.

From 1991-2000 Waddell, a North Carolina native, was a play-by-play broadcaster at the University of North Carolina Tar Heel Sports Network (1991-94), and at the University of Virginia Sports Network (1994-97) followed by a stint as the "Voice of the Mountaineers" and Director of External Operations at Appalachian State University from 1997-2000.

Waddell received his B.S. degree in Sport Management from Guilford College in 1991, where he was also a two-time letterwinner in football. He earned his master's degree in sport administration from Ohio University in 2010. Waddell is an active member of NACDA.

He and his wife, Heidi, have two children, Drew and Caroline.

ATHLETIC DEPARTMENT ADMINISTRATION

BYRON HATCH

Associate AD for Business

Byron Hatch joined the Razorback Athletics Department in July 2012 as the Associate Athletic Director for Business after seven years at the NCAA. His areas of responsibility include contract administration and oversight of procurement, travel, equipment and camp operations.

Hatch, a native of Humphrey, Ark., earned his undergraduate degree in accounting from the University of Central Arkansas (UCA) and a law degree from the University of Arkansas at Little Rock (UALR). As the NCAA's associate director of the Division I men's basketball championship (2007-11) and then the director of championships and alliances (2011-12), Hatch served as a liaison to the Division I men's basketball committee and championship hosts assisting with the planning and conducting of the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Tournament. Hatch was responsible for the financial administration of the championship and helped oversee the site selection process. He also was responsible for the supervision of NCAA officiating responsibilities for the championship, including serving as the liaison to the National Coordinator of Men's Basketball Officiating. Hatch also worked with the NCAA Corporate and Broadcast Alliances staff to coordinate NCAA corporate champions' and partners' exposure and marketing opportunities throughout the championship.

Prior to his work in the championships and alliances division, Hatch worked in the NCAA's Department of Academic and Membership Affairs as a coordinator (2005), assistant director (2005-07) and associate director (2007). Hatch and his wife Marla have two daughters, McKinley and Brooklyn.

CHRIS POHL

Associate AD for Events

A former championships director for the NCAA, Chris Pohl joined Arkansas in 2002 to manage marketing and promotion for the women's sports after 11 years at the NCAA. Pohl moved into event management in 2008 and oversees the event management department which coordinates all Guest Services and Special Events as well as all home and postseason events for the Razorbacks. In 2012, Pohl assumed sport administrator duties for soccer as well. Her primary sport event management responsibilities include football, men's basketball, soccer and swimming and diving. Pohl and her staff prepare and monitor budgets for events, work with service departments including facilities, custodial services and grounds, handle game management responsibilities for all on-campus athletic events; ensuring all aspects of the facilities are ready for competition and spectator hosting, coordinate fan services for game and event management including marketing and promotions, parking services, public safety, law enforcement, life safety/emergency responders, merchandising, concessions, and other aspects of creating a first class spectator experience.

A 1981 graduate of Central Michigan and basketball letterwinner, she earned her master's in 1984 from Penn State.

TRACEY MAYS STEHLIK

Associate AD for Compliance

Entering her 29th year with the University of Arkansas, Tracey Mays Stehlik serves as the Associate Athletic Director for Compliance for Razorback Athletics. In addition, she is a member of the sport administrator's group, overseeing women's basketball, men's and women's tennis and swimming and diving.

Stehlik began her career as an assistant women's basketball coach with the Razorbacks and was a part of the staff that won the only women's hoops conference championships at Arkansas. As an assistant coach, she recruited some of the greatest players in UA history, including former All-American Delmonica DeHorney, and helped lead Arkansas to back-to-back Southwest Conference titles.

She left the court and moved into athletic administration in 1995 and was promoted to associate athletic director for compliance in 1997. Stehlik's duties included the oversight of compliance, eligibility, academics and event management for the then-separate women's athletics department. Among her numerous areas of responsibility, Stehlik has served as the meet director for several SEC and NCAA events, including the NCAA Indoor Championships from 2003 to 2008, and the 2009 NCAA Gymnastics Regional meet. Stehlik moved into her current role when the Razorback Athletic Departments unified in 2008. As the associate athletic director for compliance, Stehlik is responsible for the oversight of all areas of compliance including eligibility, financial aid and the student-athlete opportunity fund. She oversees the day-to-day office operations and its staff and has been a leader in the on-going compliance educational efforts for the department.

A 1982 graduate of Alabama-Birmingham with a degree in communications, Stehlik has the distinction of scoring the first point in UAB women's basketball history as a member of the first Blazer team. She earned her master's degree in athletic administration at the University of Kansas where she served as a graduate assistant basketball coach from 1983 to 1985. Stehlik and her husband Wayne have two daughters, Mollie and Maggie, who both attend the University of Arkansas. Wayne is the director of athletics for the Springdale (Ark.) public schools.

ATHLETIC DEPARTMENT ADMINISTRATION

KEVIN TRAINOR

Associate AD for Public Relations
Baseball Sport Administrator

In his 19th year at Arkansas, Kevin Trainor is in his sixth year as associate athletic director and his fourth as the head of the department's Public Relations department after being promoted from his previous role in media relations. Trainor coordinates the department's executive and crisis management communications and works as a department liaison with University Relations, the National Football Foundation and other external organizations. He is in charge of producing the department's annual report and serves as executive editor of Inside Razorback Athletics. He also serves as the sports administrator and game day event manager for baseball.

Trainor was a nearly 20-year veteran in the media relations office before assuming his current role including 10 years as the sports information director and Associate Athletic Director for Sports Information overseeing publicity for all 19 Razorback sport programs including football.

During his tenure in that position, Arkansas boasted nine All-Americans, including 2006 and 2007 Doak Walker Award winner and Heisman Trophy runner-up Darren McFadden, 2007 Rimington Trophy winner Jonathan Luigs and 2003 Outland Trophy and Lombardi Award finalist Shawn Andrews.

As associate SID, Trainor worked closely with football and served as the primary contact for the 2000 SEC Tournament champion Arkansas basketball squad. He also served as the color analyst on the Razorback Baseball Radio Network for five years.

A university graduate in journalism in 1994, he earned his master's at Arkansas in 2005. He is a member of the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA), the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA) and the U.S. Basketball Writers Association of America (USBWAA). Trainor is also a member of the Public Relations Society of America (PRSA) and is on the board of directors of the Arkansas Sports Hall of Fame.

Trainor has been selected to serve as the press conference moderator at several major events including SEC Football Media Days and the SEC Football Championship Game.

Trainor and his wife, the former Ruth Whitehead, are the parents of two daughters, Emma and Ellie.

ERIC A. WOOD

Associate AD for Student-Athlete Services

Eric Wood, a member of the athletics department senior staff was promoted to Associate Athletic Director for Student-Athlete Services July 2011 and currently serves on the departments Executive Staff overseeing academics and student athlete development.

Wood joined the University of Arkansas Athletics Department staff as the Assistant Athletic Director for Student-Athlete Development in November 2009 and is responsible for the oversight of the life skills and career development programs that contribute to the personal growth and character development of our 460 Razorback student-athletes. Other responsibilities include housing, student conduct, student-athlete appearance requests, drug testing administration, coordinator of diversity initiatives and the liaison to Student Affairs.

Prior to joining the Razorbacks, Wood was the Director for Student-Athlete Programs and Compliance with the Atlantic Coast Conference (ACC) in Greensboro, N.C., a position he held since Oct. 2005.

While working at the ACC, Wood coordinated several events including the ACC's Postgraduate Scholarship Banquet, the Futures Internship program, and site coordinator for the ACC Rowing Championship. Wood also served as the liaison to the CHAMPS/ Life Skills administrator's, the Directors of Academic Support, Athletic Trainers, and the Student-Athlete Welfare Committee. In addition, he provided NCAA and ACC rules interpretations, processed medical hardship and medical absence waivers and directed the conferences' National Letter of Intent program.

Wood spent a little more than one year at Wake Forest University as the Assistant Director of Compliance and at the University of New Haven as the Assistant Director of Athletics for Compliance and Student Development. Prior to New Haven, he was selected as one of 12 interns for the NCAA's internship program with the Governance Group immediately following two years as a graduate assistant with Compliance Services in the Clemson University Athletics Department.

A 2009 graduate of the NCAA's Leadership Institute for Ethnic Minority Males and Females, Wood is currently serving a four-year term as the chair of the NCAA Student Athlete Affairs Group and a member of the Division I-A Athletic Director's Student Task Force. Wood is a 1998 graduate of Sacred Heart University in Fairfield, Conn., earning his degree in psychology. He was a three-year starter at cornerback for the Pioneer football team earning the Medal of Merit, the athletic department's highest honor, as the student-athlete of the year his senior year. Wood completed his master's degree in counseling and guidance services at Clemson University in May 2000 and is currently working on his Doctorate in Recreation and Sport Management at the University of Arkansas in the College of Education and Health Professions.

Wood and his wife Celia are originally from the Bronx, N.Y. They have two children, Eliana (3) and Nia (1).

ZACK HIGBEE

Assistant AD for Communications

Zack Higbee is in his fifth year at the University of Arkansas. Higbee joined the Razorback staff in January of 2009 as Associate Director of Media Relations. In August of 2010, he was promoted to Director of Football Media Relations and he was elevated again to his current position in February of 2013.

Previously, he worked at Florida, UConn and Oklahoma.

Higbee's role includes communications office oversight and he oversees communications operations for the Razorback football program as well as serving as the primary media contact for the athletic department. In his media relations career, Higbee successfully promoted the first underclassman ever to win the Heisman Trophy as well as winners of the Maxwell Award (2007 and 2008), Sullivan Award (2007), Davey O'Brien Award (2007), ESPY for Best Male College Athlete (2007 and 2008), Manning Award (2008), Disney Spirit Award (2008 and 2010), Mackey Award (2010) and the inaugural Johnny Rodgers Award (2011). He has also been one of the primary contacts for football teams that have appeared in three BCS games including the 2007 and 2009 BCS National Championship Games and the 2011 Sugar Bowl.

Higbee joined the Razorbacks after working the previous six and a half years as one of the primary football contacts at the University of Florida. While at Florida, Higbee coordinated the football game-day operations for the media relations office. His duties included press box set up, supervising gameday staff, production of notes packages and post-game press conference management.

Prior to working with the Gators, Higbee served as the assistant director of athletic communications at Connecticut. While with the Huskies, he was the second media contact for the 2002 Big East regular season and tournament champion men's basketball team as well as for football.

Higbee interned with the Huskies and had a brief stint in the Razorback media relations office after his graduation from Oklahoma in 2000 with a degree in communications. At OU, Higbee was also active in the sports information office as a student assistant.

Higbee is married to the former Jodi Smith and the two have one daughter, McKenna.

JUSTIN MALAND

Assistant AD for Facilities

Justin Maland joined the Razorbacks in 1999, moving into the assistant athletic director position in 2006. His areas of responsibility include oversight of all Razorback athletic facilities, including budgeting, game day operations, scheduling, upkeep, maintenance, long-range planning, daily facility operations, contracting services with outside vendors and coordination of special events.

Maland supervises a staff whose responsibilities include custodial and housekeeping, buildings, grounds and other service areas and oversees external events and facility operations on campus.

As Arkansas Athletics continues its growth and development, so do Maland's duties. He oversaw construction of the recently completed Fred W. Smith Football Center. In addition, Maland is overseeing the planning and design phase of several other construction projects outlined in the Razorback Athletics Department's Master Plan including an academic and dining center, track plaza expansion, basketball practice facility and the addition of seating in the football stadium.

Maland recently completed several renovations and upgrades to the video and ribbon boards for football and baseball as well as updates to the men's and women's basketball locker rooms.

The Harrison, Ark., native and former college student-athlete provides management services in all athletic facility renovation projects and construction management of all new projects including the state-of-the-art Fred W. Smith Football Center, part of the Athletic Department's Master Plan. One of Maland's recent projects is the installation of the new videoboard for Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium.

Maland is a 1999 graduate of Hendrix College and earned his master's degree in sports management at Arkansas in 2001.

Maland is married to the former Sarah Parnell of Booneville and they have three children, Macy, Jack and Addy.

MARK SCOBEY

Assistant AD for Ticket Operations

Charged with the supervision of ticket operations for all University of Arkansas Athletic department-related sporting events, Mark Scobey is in his 36th season with the Razorbacks. He was promoted to Assistant AD for Ticket Operations in August 2012.

During his tenure at the University of Arkansas, Scobey has assisted with ticket sales for a wide assortment of events on the Fayetteville campus, including SEC and NCAA championship events in baseball, softball, gymnastics, tennis and track. He has also been affiliated with 20 postseason football bowl games, the 1995, 2002 and 2006 SEC football championship games, and 23 postseason basketball tournament teams, including the 1978, 1990, 1994 and 1995 Final Four clubs.

In December 2011, Scobey began the transition with Paciolan Systems, Inc., to help implement Razorback E-Tickets, a new digital ticketing system for athletic events. The user friendly system allows fans to print their tickets at home and transfer their tickets to a friend when they cannot attend an event. The system is being used again this year for baseball at Baum Stadium, football at Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium and basketball at Bud Walton Arena. The addition of on-line ticket sales is now 65% of ticket volume.

Scobey joined the UA athletic staff in 1977 as an assistant athletic ticket manager and became ticket manager in 1983. A native of Warren, Ark., Scobey lives in historic Eureka Springs.

BASEBALL SUPPORT STAFF

DAVE ENGLAND

Head Athletic Trainer

Dave England is in his 31st full year as a member of the Arkansas athletic training staff. Along with working with the Razorback baseball team, England also works with men's basketball, men's and women's tennis, men's golf and Razorback spirit squads.

In 2004, he received the District 6 Athletic Trainer Service Award from the National Athletic Trainers Association. He was honored in 2000 as the Arkansas Athletic Trainers' Association Trainer of the Year.

England also worked at Arkansas as a student and graduate assistant athletic trainer. He returned to Fayetteville following a stint in the St. Louis Cardinals baseball organization.

A 1980 graduate of Arkansas with a bachelor's of science degree in education, England worked the 1976 Cotton Bowl and 1978 Orange Bowl football games as a student athletic trainer. He was a graduate assistant for Dean Weber in 1980-81 and went with the Razorbacks to the 1980 Hall of Fame Bowl. He also worked with baseball as a student and graduate assistant.

He then accepted an offer to work with the Cardinals. After spending some time in the lower levels of the organization, he worked his way up to the position of head trainer for the Cardinals' Double-A team in Little Rock. He returned to Arkansas in January 1984 as an assistant and was promoted to head athletic trainer in 1989.

In working with Razorback basketball, England has been to 16 NCAA Tournaments and two NITs. He's made three trips to the Final Four and worked with the 1994 NCAA Champions and the 1995 national runner-up. He returned to the College World Series with the baseball Razorbacks in 1985 and 1987. While working with football he has been to the Liberty and Cotton bowls twice, and the Orange, Holiday and Hall of Fame bowls.

One of the founding members of the Arkansas Athletic Trainers' Association in 1987, England was inducted into the AATA Hall of Fame in 1999.

He has two daughters, Jennifer (29), and Alyson (20), and a granddaughter, Ellie (2). He is married to the former Heather Cullum, who is the Director of Guest Services for the Athletic Department.

HEATHER ENGLAND

Director of Guest Services

Heather England assumed duties as Director of Guest Services for the University of Arkansas athletics department in July 2011 with more than 10 years of experience working within the Razorback athletics.

England oversees event service and operation activities for all premium seating in each of the Razorback venues. Some of her duties include coordination with outside vendors in the suites, club lounges and club /courtside seating areas; hiring and training event services staff; and assisting patrons with any suite holder/seating needs as they arise.

Prior to the current role, England had served in administrative support to UA's senior administrators since August 2009. In England's previous role, her duties included communicating with donors, planning events for Razorback supporters, overseeing budgets for athletics development and men's basketball and supervising graduate assistants.

Previously, England worked for 10 years in the Arkansas Athletics Department Ticket Center, servicing requests and addressing Razorback supporters' needs. Her responsibilities included working with specific donor levels in regards to season tickets, training customer service representatives in ticket office procedures, maintaining NCAA compliance documentation and providing support during home athletic events.

Prior to beginning her work for Razorback athletics, England was co-owner of Realty Executives Metro Brokers in Fayetteville, Ark. She also worked as an optometric assistant and store manager at Brandon Eye Clinic in Springdale, Ark.

England finished a Master's in public administration at UA in May 2009, emphasizing in higher education. She also did her undergraduate work at Arkansas, earning a Bachelor's of Arts in sociology in 2005. In her time in the UA athletics department, England has served as a representative on the Staff Senate. The native of Wynne, Ark., is the wife of Razorback basketball athletic trainer, Dave England.

JAMES PULIDO

Academic Counselor

James Pulido joined the University of Arkansas academic center as a learning specialist in July 2011 and works specifically with baseball and women's track and field.

Pulido joined the Razorbacks after serving two years in the same position at Texas A&M-Corpus Christi, working with student-athletes from several teams. During his tenure, Pulido assisted student-athletes with the learning process, helped with the creation of long and short-term goals, and trained student-athletes with effective student skills, learning strategies, note taking and organizational skills.

In addition to his time in the academic center, Pulido was a volunteer assistant coach with the TAMU-CC track and field and cross country teams. Pulido's other experience includes working as an intern counselor at the Antonio E. Garcia Arts and Education Center, serving as a case manager with the Texas Correctional Office and interning with Planned Parenthood.

A former All-Southland Conference performer in cross country and track and field, Pulido earned his undergraduate degree in kinesiology in May 2008 followed by his master's degree in education psychology in December 2010, from Texas A&M Corpus Christi.

MARK TAYLOR

Assistant Equipment Manager

As assistant equipment manager, Mark Taylor plays a key role in providing Arkansas with one of the most experienced staffs around. He is in his 23rd year with the Razorbacks.

The equipment room staff handles the distribution to athletes and coaches, any necessary repair, and all ordering and laundering. They are also responsible for coordinating with the coaching staff to ensure all required practice accessories are where they should be for appropriate drills and workouts. After the team has left the field and locker room, the equipment room staff is still around, getting everything ready for the next day.

Taylor joined the athletic department in 1991 after serving in the equipment room at Nicholls State University in Thibodaux, La. He has made been with the team for three trips to the College World Series, most recently in 2012, and assisted the football program to 11 bowl games, including the 1991 Independence Bowl, the 1995 CarQuest Bowl, the 1999 Florida Citrus Bowl, the 2000 Cotton Bowl, the 2000 Las Vegas Bowl, the 2002 Cotton Bowl, the 2002 Music City Bowl, the 2003 Independence Bowl the 2007 Capital One Bowl, the 2008 Cotton Bowl and the 2011 Sugar Bowl.

An all-district football and basketball player at Harmony Grove High School in Camden, Taylor worked in the equipment room at Ouachita Baptist for four years while working on his degree. He graduated from high school in 1983 and earned his degree in health and physical education from Ouachita in 1988.

He spent his first year out of college in private business before accepting a position at Nicholls State. He earned his master's degree in education and supervision from Nicholls State while working for the equipment department.

Taylor and his wife, Kim, have two daughters, Anna and Abby.

KATIE RAINES

Nutritionist

Katie Raines, a registered dietitian, joined the Razorbacks in August of 2012 as a graduate assistant.

Raines is pursuing her doctorate degree in recreation and sport management from the University of Arkansas. She anticipates graduation in the spring of 2015.

As a member of the athletic department staff, Raines is responsible for counseling student-athletes from all 19 Razorback sports programs on optimal nutrition for training and competition. She provides personalized meal and snack plans to promote achieving short- and long-term goals for athletic performance, recommends appropriate pre-, during, and post-event fueling tactics, and counsels student-athletes on achieving and maintaining a level of body mass, body fat, and muscle mass that is consistent with good health and optimal performance.

Additionally, she is the athletic department's NCAA designee for nutritional supplements used by Razorback student-athletes.

Prior to working with the Razorbacks, Raines was a registered dietitian at Northwest Medical Center in Bentonville, Ark.

Raines received her bachelor of science in food, human nutrition, and hospitality with an emphasis in dietetics in 2008 and her master of science in kinesiology with an emphasis in Exercise Science in 2010 from the University of Arkansas. She completed her dietetic internship at UAMS/CAVHS in Little Rock, Ark.
